Subject: DUG Student Update: Mid-Term Feedback (Term One)

Dear Student

I hope this finds you well and having enjoyed a productive first half of Term. I just wanted to send a quick announcement before your well-deserved break for Reading Week.

Mid Term Feedback:

Please note that the Feedback Questionnaires for the mid-term are now open on your Moodle pages. You can find these on every module you are enrolled on this Term.

This questionnaire asks you the following three questions.

1. Tell us about what you particularly liked about this Module? (e.g. structure, content, and/or teaching).
2. Tell us what worked less well for you on this Module.
3. Can you think of any improvements or changes we can make to this Module to make your experience more satisfying?

Giving feedback is as much a skill as taking it! Be open and honest about your experiences both good and bad, but please avoid personal comments and criticism. Remember at this stage in the term there might well be things we can change to make your learning experience better, so it is worth spending a few minutes sharing your experiences. Thank you very much for your time and cooperation with this. It is much appreciated.

As always, do please reach out to me or Bahzad if you have any queries at all about your course. We are always happy to help and support you in any way we can. On behalf of both of us, we wish you a lovely weekend and a restful reading week. We look forward to seeing you in class in Week 7 refreshed and re-energized. Take care and see you soon.

With best wishes,

Daniel & Bahzad
