

OUR SOCIAL, ENVIRONMENTAL AND CULTURAL IMPACTS

We make a significant contribution to the UK and to the regional economy as well as having a positive social, environmental and cultural impact in our region.

Did you know?

In 2019-20

10,554

school-age children participated in Warwick Arts Centre creative learning activities.

In 2019-20

1,000

students were involved in community-focused projects in Coventry, Leamington, Kenilworth and Warwick.

In 2019-20

122,000

people connected with our research through public lectures, exhibitions and other activities.

In 2020-21

210

Despite COVID-19, we engaged with over 210 schools and reached 3,366 participants with our widening participation activities.

In 2019-20

13%

We had reduced our carbon emissions over previous 10 years by 13% despite significant growth.

In 2019-20

84%

of the University's waste was recycled.

In 2020

155

medical students who trained at Warwick Medical School started their foundation years as a doctor. 21% of them as a doctor in the local area.

In 2019-20

350

teachers were added to the schools workforce, with 81% in local schools in our region.

