Role Description

Volunteer Title
Social Ambassador

Role Objective

We are looking for outgoing, engaging individuals who enjoy organising social events that will bring together a community. This role will suit anyone who wishes to expand their network, build their skills and be a part of relaunching this new, exciting programme.

Purpose of Warwick Alumni Ambassador Programme

To create thriving Warwick alumni communities across the world that are organised by graduates for graduates. Not only will you support local alumni, but you will assist in attracting the best and most talented international students by acting as a role model. You will also liaise with staff, student and department-led international collaborations which support our education and research ambitions.

Responsibilities

- Support the ambassador in preparation, promotion and creativity.
- Assist the ambassador to establish a network of Warwick graduates in your area.
- Liaise with other alumni ambassadors and social ambassadors.
- Plan and host a variety of events alongside the ambassador.
- Promote events and professional networks.
- Enhance the Warwick brand.

Benefits to you

The role will not demand much of your time, but it will make a huge impact in inspiring the next generation to study at Warwick and in creating a lively and social alumni community in your area.

- Expand your personal and professional development.
- Enhance Warwick’s global brand.
- Network and socialise with alumni in your city, country or region.
- Lead an active social community.
- Be part of a high-flying global network of Warwick Ambassadors connected with each other across the world. The alumni team will be setting up a communication channel between ambassadors around the world so that you can keep in touch with each other as well.
