

DO YOU HAVE A VARIETY OF INTERESTS?

DO YOU HAVE OPINIONS YOU ARE WILLING TO SHARE?

We are looking for an advisory panel of 18-24 year olds for The Times and The Sunday Times Cheltenham Literature Festival 2015

All you have to do is to come and meet us twice:

Thursday 7 May 4-6pm

We will share a range of ideas for the 2015 Literature Festival for you to respond to - build upon; dismiss; suggest others.

Thursday 11 June 4-6pm

We will present you with the Literature Festival Programme and Communications plan for your feedback, so that we can make final amends and maximise opportunities for young people.

Cheltenham Literature Festival is the oldest of its kind in the world, founded in 1949 and enjoying an international reputation for the quality and innovation of its programme. Every year we host around 500 events and welcome over 700 speakers to our Festival site in central Cheltenham for 10 days of inspiration, challenge, surprise and entertainment.

Interested? Apply to be part of the panel
