

'On View' - the Society's Caribbean Collections

Royal Geographical Society
with IBG

Advancing geography
and geographical learning

- Friday 29th November 2013
- 2.00pm - 5.00pm
- A free to access Collections display

On view – the Society's Caribbean collections

An opportunity to view a wide selection of original material from the Society's Caribbean collection as featured in the exhibition 'Making Freedom' (5 November – 21 December 2013) curated by the Windrush Foundation and supported by the Heritage Lottery Fund.

The display, including rare and original books, maps, photographs, artefacts and other archival items will be introduced by Dr. David Lambert, Reader of Caribbean History, Department of History, University of Warwick and Director of the Yesu Persaud Centre for Caribbean Studies.

Followed by an introduction and guided tour of the exhibition by Windrush Foundation Project Co-ordinator Arthur Torrington, OBE; with an opportunity to meet members of the project team. This 'On View' event presents a perfect way to engage with the Society's wider Collections and is aimed at students, researchers and the wider public with an interest in the geographical history of the Caribbean. All are welcome to attend.

Ticket Information: Free to All but pre-booking required (refreshments will be provided).

Venue: Foyle Reading Room and Exhibition Pavilion, Royal Geographical Society (with IBG), 1, Kensington Gore, London SW7 2AR. To book a place: ☎ Telephone +44 (0)20 7591 3044 ✉ Email showcase@rgs.org