Classical Civilisation BA, Classical Civilisation with Study in Europe BA

This wide-ranging, flexible degree is devoted to the study of the literature, history, philosophy, languages, art and archaeology of the ancient Greek and Roman worlds.

The course allows you to choose from a wide range of topics - such as gender and sexuality in antiquity, ancient mythology, Greek theatre, Roman laughter, or the history of medicine - and to develop skills in literary criticism and historical analysis as well as in theoretical and interdisciplinary approaches to the subject.

The 'Study in Europe' degree is a four-year variant involving study abroad in your third year. You will study a modern European language (currently Italian or German) during your first and second years to prepare you for your year abroad.

Course Structure: Each year you study 120 CATS
