

Chapter 21.

Exercise 114

Remember, once you have checked these, do them again, preferably several times, quickly, telling yourself what it is checking on.

1. The army has been drawn up for battle.
2. The enemy was chased into the sea.
3. The city itself has not been harmed by the enemy.
4. The Greeks were persuaded not to destroy the bridge.
5. Athens (not at all) will be saved by the wooden wall.
6. The Persians were compelled to escape from Attica.
7. A lot of money was sent by the allies.
8. Those on the island have been saved.
9. The task has been done within three days.
10. The army was drawn up by Cyrus.
11. We have been left, gentlemen, by the allies.
12. Many (men) will be persuaded by Demosthenes' words.

Exercise 115

1. βεβώσθηθα ὑπὸ τοῦ Μιλτιάδου.
2. ὀλίγοι μόνον λελειμένοι εἰσὶν ἐν ταῖς Ἀθήναις.
3. οἱ ἵππεῖς ἐδιώχθησαν ὑπὸ τοῖς καλήλοις.
4. τὸ ἔργον νῦν πέπρακται.
5. οἱ Ἕλληνες ἤχθησαν πρὸς τὴν Θάλασσαν ὑπὸ ἡγεμόνι.

Exercise 116

1. We will be compelled to spend a lot of (much) money
2. Both earth and water were sent to the King (of Persia)
3. Many citizens ~~were~~ ^{have been} struck by stones.
4. We have been drawn up for a great (big) battle.
5. You will be guarded by the ships, citizens.
6. Many knees were ('was') harmed by the Spartans.
7. Not many people were left in the city.
8. All necessary things will be done on behalf of the city.
9. The Greeks have been persuaded not to chase the Persian ships
10. You have not been harmed by the Greeks, King

Exercise 117 (extension)

1. οἱ σύμμαχοι πεπεισμένοι εἰσὶ ἀποχωρεῖν.
2. ἐσώθημεν ὑπὸ τῶν Λακεδαιμονίων.
3. στρατιὰ μεγάλη) ἤχθη ὑπὸ τοῦ Ξέρξου στράτευμα μέγα)
4. ἡ τοῦ Πολυκράτους σφραγὶς ἐσώθη.
5. οὐ πέπεισθε, ὦ πολῖται.
6. ἡ νῆσος σωθήσεται ὀλιγῶν ἡμέρων
7. πολλοὶ στρατιῶται κεκυρμένοι εἰσὶν.
8. οὐ πολλὰ χρήματα λείπεται ἐν τῇ πόλει.
(pl.)