

Department of English & Comparative Literary Studies (ECLS):

Induction & Module Guide 2026/27

Welcome to Warwick!

Your Modules

Core Modules (Compulsory)

You'll be automatically registered on all the core modules for your course. Your lectures for these and your allocated seminars are on your Tabula timetable.

Lecture times for all English first-year modules can also be found here:

Your Optional Module/s

You'll also need to choose your optional modules:

Q300 English Literature/QW34 English & Theatre Studies – 30 CATS

VQ32 English & History – 60 CATS

You must complete the module choice form by 5pm on Tuesday 29th September:

We will allocate you a seminar once we have confirmed your module choice/s.

VQ32 English & History students who wish to take an optional history module must complete the History department's form by 12noon on Monday 28th September:

If you are on Q300 or QW34 and wish to choose a language module or external module in the School of Modern Languages (SMLC) as your optional module, please contact the department:

Modern Languages modules

Visiting students

You will be registered on your allocated modules – your lecture and seminar times are on your Tabula timetable. Further information will be given at the visiting students induction meeting:

Academic Enrichment

Academic Enrichment is compulsory – further information is here:

Your Academic Enrichment sessions will be on Tabula. There's no AE session in Week 1.

Instead, you'll attend the Hidden Curriculum Talk - Monday 5th October 09:00-10:00 - R0.21 (Ramphal Building)

Lectures & Seminars

Your lectures begin in Week 1; make sure you're checking Tabula from the very beginning of term:

You will have Meet & Greet seminars in Week 1. Regular seminars begin in Week 2. Please see the module webpages for the preparation you need to do in advance – you can link to these from here:

You will be assigned to your seminar groups and these will show on your Tabula timetable.

Academic Writing Support

Want some help with essays, structure, referencing or academic style?

As well as your Academic Enrichment sessions, you can access Academic Writing Support via the ECLS Academic Writing Support Moodle:

Welcome Week & Induction

Please check your Welcome Week timetable carefully for the events you are required to attend during Induction Week. These sessions are designed to help you settle in, meet staff and students, and prepare for your studies. Some events are compulsory, so make sure you know where you need to be and when:

Details of course-specific induction meetings for QW34 English & Theatre Studies and VQ32 English & History students (both in the English department and your joint-degree department) are here:

English department lunchtime social

This takes place on Tuesday 29th September, 13:00 – 14:30 in FAB5.01/02/03 – pizza and drinks will be provided!

Student Conduct

All new students are expected to complete the Student Conduct course on Moodle:
