
Conference/Seminar Papers

Angela Davis (2010), 'Women’s Relationship with the Maternity Services, England c.1948-1974'; Social History of Medicine Seminar Series; Tel Aviv University.

Angela Davis (2009), ‘Sex education, gender and acceptable knowledge, Oxfordshire 1930-1970’; 34th Annual SSHA Meeting; Queen Mary, Long Beach, California.

Angela Davis (2009), ‘Women and work in post-war Britain, continuity and change’; Legacies and Futures: Public History conference; Ruskin College, Oxford.

Angela Davis (2009), ‘Recording women’s lives in post-1945 Oxfordshire: an oral history approach’; Local History After Hoskins, University of Leicester.

Angela Davis (2009), ‘The changing role of friends and kin in the transmission of knowledge about maternity in post-1945 Britain’; Anglo-Dutch-German Workshop: The Transmission of Health Practices (c. 1500 to 2000); Robert Bosch Foundation, Stuttgart.

Angela Davis (2009), ‘The changing role of friends and kin in the transmission of knowledge about maternity in post-1945 Britain’; Anglo-Dutch-German Workshop: The Transmission of Health Practices (c. 1500 to 2000); Robert Bosch Foundation, Stuttgart.

Angela Davis (2009), ‘Widows, work and family life in mid-century Britain’; Social History Society Annual Conference, University of Warwick.

Angela Davis (2008), ‘A front-line worker in the promotion of mental and physical health’. Health visitors and maternal and child welfare, Oxfordshire c. 1948-1974; SSHM Annual Conference; Glasgow.

Angela Davis (2008), ‘Child development and the father/daughter relationship, Britain c. 1910-1960’; Gender, Health and Medicine in Historical Perspective; University of Exeter.

Angela Davis (2008), ‘Oh no nurse, don’t want any of that rubbish’, women, reproduction and attitudes to advice’; Advice to Mothers Workshop; University of Warwick.