

ic Engagement

eatments were provided at the Pump Rooms in Leamington Spa most two hundred years. The cal history gallery interpreting spa ents re-opened in January 2011 . ew displays draw on research two projects funded by the ome Trust with Hilary Marland as ipal investigator. The gallery ign, which includes a listening post ccess to oral histories, is the latest eries of collaborative ventures to diverse audiences. Earlier projects € ing tours of Leamington Spa conferences t in residence uthored articles in professional um journals kshop for gifted youth

Lane, Life at the Water Cure, 1851

Jane Adams
ne.adams@warwick.ac.uk

Photograph: author's own

LSAGM Collection

New research theme: Nature Cures in Britain 1840-1980

- Philosophies of nature cure
- Popular practices
- Professional identity
- Challenging orthodoxy
- Changing concepts of health
- International connections

•Forthcoming papers:

•'Developing Naturopathy in Britain 1919-1955', Birmingham ,May 2011

•'Naturopathy, psychology, yoga and the 'study of you' in inter-war Britain,' Utrecht, September 2011