

GLOBAL HISTORY EVENTS

Spring Programme 2023

- New Year's reception and new members' introductions
Week 1. Wednesday 11 January, 12.30 - 2 pm, FAB5.03, Faculty of Arts Building
- Film Screening: David Anderson, A Very British Way of Torture
Week 2. Wednesday 18 January, 12.30 - 2 pm, R0.14, Ramphal Building
- GHCC Reading Group: Jonathan E. Robbins, Oil Palm: A Global History (University of North Carolina Press: 2021).
Week 3. Wednesday 25 January, 1 - 2 pm, FAB5.01, Faculty of Arts Building
- History Research seminar: David Arnold (Emeritus Professor, Warwick), Photography and Technology in British India, Discussant: Nilakshi Das, Chair: Anne Gerritsen
Week 4. Wednesday 1 February, 4.30 - 6 pm, OC0.04, Oculus Building
- History Research seminar: Tarangini Sriraman (Goldsmiths), Seeing through the Stomach: Caste and Connected Medical Discourses on Alcoholic (Mal)nutrition
Discussant: Somak Biswas, Chair: Guido van Meersbergen
Week 5. Wednesday 8 February, 4.30 - 6 pm, OC0.04, Oculus Building
- Max Chuhila (University of Dar es Salaam), African Environmental History,
Discussant: Niels Boender
Week 7. Wednesday 22 February, 1 – 2 pm, OC1.08, Oculus Building
- Christine Okoth (KCL), Knowledge Frontiers: The Sixth Pan African Congress and the Literature of Resource Sovereignty, Discussant: Jack Bowman
Week 8. Wednesday 1 March, 1 - 2 pm, FAB5.03, Faculty of Arts Building
- GHCC workshop, First Books in Global History
Week 9. Friday 10 March, 11-6 pm, Wolfson Exchange 1&2, Library
- GHCC workshop, Non-English Sources for Global History
Week 10. Tuesday 14 March, 2-6pm, Wolfson Exchange 1&2, Library