GLOBAL HISTORY EVENTS

Autumn Programme 2017

- Global History and Culture Centre Start of Year Reception
  Week 1. Wednesday 4 October, 5-6.30pm, R0.12 Ramphal Building

- Short introductions by new members
  Song-chuan Chen, James Poskett, Claire Shaw
  Week 3. Wednesday 18 October, 1-2pm, H0.03 Humanities Building

- Transnational History and Japan’s “Comparative Advantage”
  Sheldon Garon (Princeton University) with drinks afterwards for all our PG students
  Week 3. Friday 20 October, 5.30pm, Pavilion Room, St Antony’s College, Oxford

- ‘Slavery and Industrialisation: The ‘New History Of Capitalism’ and Eric Williams’ Slavery and Capitalism’ (Joint seminar with EMECC)
  Trevor Burnard (University of Melbourne)
  Week 4. Thursday 26 October, 5 -7.15pm, R1.15 Ramphal Building

- Global Reading Group
  ‘What is Global History Now’? A discussion with author Jeremy Adelman (Princeton University)
  Week 5. Wednesday 1 November, 1-2pm, H5.45 Humanities Building

- History seminar ‘Development as Global Distributive Justice: A Twentieth-Century History’
  Prof Jeremy Adelman (Princeton University)
  Week 5. Wednesday 1 November, 4.30 – 6.30pm, OC0.01 Oculus Building

- Short introductions by new members
  Susan Carruthers, José Escribano, Katayoun Shafiee
  Week 7. Wednesday 15 November, 1-2pm, H0.03 Humanities Building

- Global Reading Group
  Geoffrey Parker ‘Global Crisis: War, Climate Change and Catastrophe in the Seventeenth Century’
  Week 8. Wednesday 22 November, 1-2pm, H2.44 Humanities Building

- "The War of the Locust, 1940-45: an interdisciplinary workshop"
  Week 10. Friday 8 December, 12-5pm, IAS seminar room, Millburn House