GLOBAL HISTORY EVENTS
Spring Programme 2018

- Global seminar Who Was Ahmed Khan? Hospitality and Identification between Europe and India during the Age of Revolutions
  Rahul Markovits (École Normale Supérieure, Paris)
  Week 1. Wednesday 10 Jan 4.30 – 7pm, R0.3/4 Ramphal Building
  Followed by a drinks reception to start off the new term. All welcome

- Global Humanities joint workshop with Shanghai Jiao Tong University
  Week 2. 16-18 Jan, Radcliffe Conference Centre

- Short introductions by new members
  Alice Leonard, Guido van Meersbergen, Shinobu Majima
  Week 4. Wednesday 31 Jan, 1-2pm, H5.45 Humanities Building

- Where There Is No Incinerator: Histories of Biomedical Disposability and Reuse on the African Continent (Joint seminar with CHM)
  Marissa Mika (University College London)
  Week 5. Tuesday 2 Feb, 4-6pm, R0.14 Ramphal Building

- Global Reading Group
  Week 5. Wednesday 7 February, 1-2pm, H0.60 Humanities Building

- Global seminar Indian Textiles in West Africa, 1750-1850: A South-South Economic History
  Kazuo Kobayashi (University of Tokyo)
  Week 7. Wednesday 21 Feb, 1-2pm, H5.45 Humanities Building

- Global Reading Group
  Week 8. Wednesday 28 Feb, 1-2pm, H5.45 Humanities Building

- Shadow Networks: Labour, Capital and Pearling in the Indian Ocean (Joint seminar with EMECC)
  Pedro Machado (Indiana University)
  Week 8. Thursday 1 Mar, 5-7pm, H3.03 Humanities Building