

GLOBAL HISTORY EVENTS

Autumn Programme 2024

- Welcome Lunch and Wheeler History of Travel Writing Programme Launch
Week 2. Wed 9 Oct, 1-2pm, FAB5.01 Faculty of Arts Building
- GHCC-Yesu Persaud Centre Seminar, *Worthy of Freedom: Indenture and Free Labor in the Era of Emancipation (2024): Book Talk and Discussion
Jonathan Connolly (University of Illinois, Chicago)
Week 3. Thu 17 Oct, 1-3 pm, Wolfson Research Exchange 1&2, Library
- Warwick-Japan seminar, “The Dimensions of Many an Arab Room Were fixed on the Beach at Lamu”: Environment, Dwelling and Exchange in the Western Indian Ocean’
Hideaki Suzuki (Nagasaki University)
Week 4. Wed 23 Oct, 12-1 pm, OC0.02 Oculus Building
- New Members’ Introductions
Liz Chant, Anca Cretu & Liz Egan (Warwick)
Week 5. Thu 31 Oct, 1-2 pm, OC0.04 Oculus Building
- Warwick-Japan seminar, ‘Categories at Work in Global History’
Miki Sugiura (Hosei University) and Guido van Meersbergen (Warwick)
Week 6. Tues 5 Nov, 10-11.30 am, online only via MS Teams
- GHCC Seminar, *Galley Slaves Turned Merchants: the Role of Muslim Captives in the Production and Transmission of Things and Knowledge in Early Modern Europe
Federica Gigante (Cambridge/I Tatti)
Week 7. Tue 12 Nov, 12-1 pm, OC1.09 Oculus Building
- A Panel Discussion ‘The Global and Art History’
Marta Ajmar, Jonathan Cane & Michael Hatt (Warwick)
Week 8. Wed 20 Nov, 1-3 pm, OC 1.08 Oculus Building
- GHCC Reading Group: Stefanie Gänger and Jürgen Osterhammel (eds.), *Rethinking Global History (Cambridge University Press, 2024)
Week 9. Tues 26 Nov, 1-2pm, OC0.05 Oculus Building
- Workshop: ‘The Traveller’s Tale: Global Forms and Circulations’
Marco Polo International Programme & Wheeler History of Travel Writing
Week 9. 29-30 Nov, Warwick Venice Centre. In-person only
- GHCC-Map History Group seminar, ‘World Mapping as Worldmaking: Cooperation and Cartographic Internationalism in the Interwar Period’
Philip Jagessar (KCL)
Week 10. Wed 4 Dec, 12-2pm, FAB3.30 Faculty of Arts Building
- EMECC-GHCC Seminar, ‘War, Travel and Cultural Exchange: William Gell and the British in Iberia’
Roey Sweet (Leicester)
Week 10. Thu 5 Dec, 1-2 pm, OC0.04 Oculus Building