

GLOBAL HISTORY EVENTS

Spring Programme 2024

- New Year's Reception and seminar, Tamara Fernando (Stony Brook), 'Commodity History and the History of Science? Reading Mathematical Practice, Navigation and Astronomy in the Natural Pearl Trade across Arabic and Tamil contexts'
Week 1. Wednesday 10 January, 12.30 - 2 pm, FAB5.01, Faculty of Arts Building
- New Member's Introduction with Tom Simpson
Week 2. Wednesday 17 January, 1 - 2 pm, FAB5.01, Faculty of Arts Building
- GHCC Reading Group: Martin Dusinberre, Mooring the Global Archive: A Japanese Ship and its Migrant Histories (Cambridge: Cambridge University Press, 2023)
Week 3. Tuesday 23 January, 1 - 2 pm, OC0.05, Oculus Building
- Ana Struillou (IHR), 'Struggle and Smoke: Early Itineraries of Tobacco between the Spanish and Maghribi Empires'
Week 4. Wednesday 31 January, 1 - 2 pm, FAB5.01, Faculty of Arts Building
- Natalia Milanesio (Houston), 'Beyond the Ballot Box: Sex and the Meanings of Democracy in Postdictatorial Argentina'
Week 8. Wednesday 28 February, 1 - 2 pm, FAB5.01, Faculty of Arts Building
- GHCC Reading Group: Dipesh Chakrabarty, The Climate of History in a Planetary Age (Chicago: Chicago University Press, 2021)
Week 9. Tuesday 5 March, 1 - 2 pm, R0.04, Ramphal Building
- EMECC-GHCC workshop, 'Histories of Refugees and Forced Migration'
Week 9. Friday 8 March, 10-5 pm, Wolfson Research Exchange, Library
- GHCC WiP, Xiaona Wang, 'Manipulation of Evidence: Jesuits in China and the Forgings of Early Modern Eurasian Astronomy'
Week 10. Wednesday 13 March, 1-2pm, R1.13 Ramphal Building
- EMECC-GHCC seminar, Sheryllynne Haggerty (Nottingham), 'Ordinary People, Extraordinary Times: Living the British Empire in Jamaica, 1756'
Discussant: Liz Egan
Week 10. Thursday 14 March, 12-1.30pm, R0.14 Ramphal Building