

1. When you get off the bus at the Warwick University Bus Interchange, walk along Gibbet Hill Road and turn right at the first crossing.
2. Walk down the slope along Library Road and the library building can be found on your right-hand side.
3. Go via the stairs to reach the First Floor of the library.

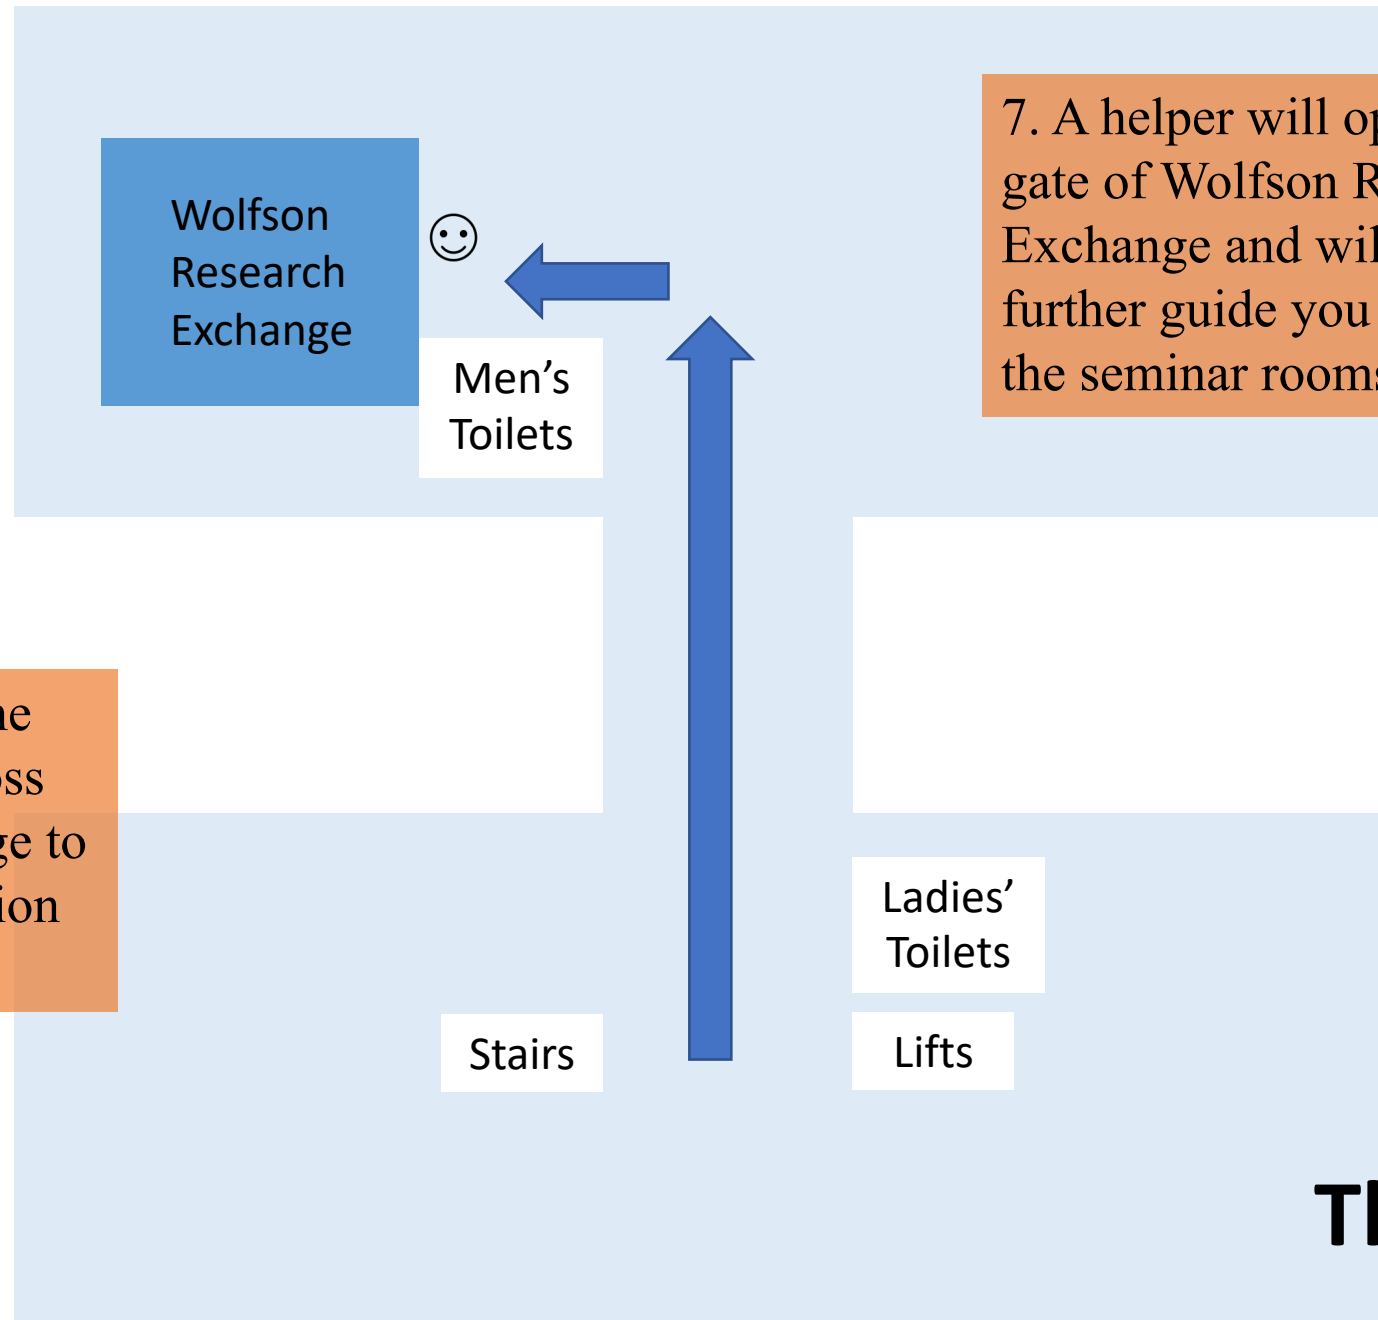

4. A helper at the 'Welcome Point' will guide you through the entrance barriers. You can get a temporary pass here to access the library if you bring a form of photographic ID.

5. Please proceed to the third floor either via the stairs or lift.

First Floor

6. When you get to the third floor, please cross the signposted passage to the third floor extension and then turn left.

7. A helper will open the gate of Wolfson Research Exchange and will further guide you to find the seminar rooms inside.

Third Floor