Japanese for Busy people II

十三課

1. Describing a change in State (2)

~てきます

1. Describing a change in State (2)

You use \sim τ \Rightarrow \Rightarrow when you have become aware of a change in some state and want to make a note of it.

(1) To indicate that something has changed over time.

The population has increased.

Te from + きました

Making a sentence with more than 2 grammar from level 2

I have put on weight. (My weight has increased)

たいじゅう が ふえてきました。 so

I intend to do jogging everyday.

まいにち、ジョギングをしようとおもっています。

I have put on weight so I intend to do jogging everyday.

たいじゅう が ふえてきたので、 まいにち、ジョギングをしようとおもっています。 intend to ~ better to ~ better not to ~ may/might ~

Volitional form とおもっています ~たほうがいいです

~ないほうがいいです

~かもしれません

Making a sentence with more than 2 grammar from level 2 Using a modified noun

People who do...

Eg. People who eat sushi すしを 食べる 人

Japanese food is healthy (good for health), so the number of people who eat sushi has increased.

日本の たべものは からだに いいので、 すしを たべる 人 が ふえてきました。

People who watch animeアニメを 見る 人people who do joggingジョギングを する 人