

Student Opportunity: Careers Update

School of Modern Languages & Cultures

What do language graduates do?

Last month saw the annual publication of What do graduates do? which summarises what UK students do 15 months after graduation. These were the top 10 professional jobs that language students progressed onto nationwide. Here at Warwick, you can read about the careers of some of our alumni here. Or there is a useful tool on LinkedIn that will allow you to search alumni that studied languages here at Warwick- our careers blog on LinkedIn contains a video that explains how to use this function. For other ideas about what you could do with a language degree use the resources on Prospects and Target jobs as a starting point.

Top 10 professional jobs

- 1 Secondary education teaching professionals
- 2 Marketing associate professionals
- 3 Public relations professionals
- 4 Business sales executives
- 5 Human resources and industrial relations officers
- 6 Primary education teaching professionals
- 7 Authors, writers and translators
- 8 Business and related research professionals
- 9 Finance and investment analysts and advisers
- 10 Sales accounts and business development managers
