

Liverpool's Hispanic History: Information Afternoon

Saturday 6 December, 2-5pm at Liverpool Central Library

- Have you got Spanish, Filipino, Cuban, Latin American, Basque or Galician heritage?
- Are you interested in Liverpool's cosmopolitan history and keen to find out more about its Hispanic dimension?
- Do you remember Spanish shops and businesses, such as the Larrinaga shipping company, or Madariaga and Learreta's shop on Park Lane? (right, in a 1939 photo from Liverpool Record Office)

Join us at Liverpool's Central Library for an afternoon exploring the forgotten history of the Spanish, Basque, Galician, Filipino and Latin American communities who settled around the Liverpool waterfront in the nineteenth century and whose descendants still live in the city today.

PROGRAMME

2pm: Kirsty Hooper: Hispanic Liverpool: Who, Where, How and Why?

2.35: Dominic Semple: The Suárez-Mosquera Family of Hurst Street

3pm: Short break

3.10: J Carmen Smith: My Spanish Grandmother was 'born on the pavement'

3.35: Roger Hull: Hispanic Liverpool in Records and Photographs

4-5pm: Coffee and Conversation. An informal opportunity to share your stories and memories and find out more about our work (Kirsty Hooper / Laura Yates)

JOIN US!

Attendance is FREE and includes refreshments, but places are limited. Please visit our registration page before 1 December to book your free ticket: <https://hispanicliverpool14.eventbrite.co.uk>

Got questions? Want to know more?

Email project co-ordinator Kirsty Hooper on hispanicliverpoolproject@gmail.com

Or visit our webpage: <http://www.warwick.ac.uk/hispanicliverpool>