

Faculty of Arts

Student Experience

newsletter - November 2024

Welcome to the November Arts Student Experience news drop! Somehow it's reading week already - we hope you take advantage to both take care of yourself and get ahead of the rest of term. As always, we come with a wealth of events and opportunities to support and enhance your experience at Warwick, so read on and see some of the many things Autumn Term still has to offer!

Rob, Bing, Sacha and Reece (the DSEP team)

DSEP activities

Arts Faculty Study Café

The Arts Study Café is running every Wednesday from 14:00-17:00 in FAB 2.25! Our sessions include themed talks and workshops and drop-in study sessions where you can write, read and work in a focused and supportive environment. Check out the Study Café webpages for more info and our termly calendar. No need to book, everyone is welcome to drop in!

13 Nov: Demystifying Assessments
20 Nov: URSS Arts Showcase (FAB Agora)
27 Nov: The Craft of Research
4 Dec: URSS support session

Featured news

TeamWork International Experience Programme - Spring 2025

Take part, build your CV and gain international and intercultural experience working online in a multidisciplinary team with 5 other students from Warwick and other top universities around the world. You'll collaborate on an organisation's project for four weeks, for 10 hours per week, from 3-28 March. UK home students from under-represented demographic groups will benefit from priority places and may be eligible for a £400 bursary. Head to the TeamWork webpage to find out more about the programme and complete our quick and easy application form. Applications close on Monday 25 November.

Cross-Faculty Easter Programme to South Carolina

We are very excited to share with you an exclusive fully funded opportunity for eight first-year widening participation students to take part in a fantastic programme in South Carolina, North America during Easter 2025. This will be an interdisciplinary programme led by academics from the Faculty of Arts covering the following cross-faculty topics on Memory, Southern Culture, Race & Natural Disasters. Throughout the week, there'll be various trips and a chance to see different towns in South Carolina. To find out more about the trip including topics, key dates and eligibility criteria please visit our webpage.

The Global Opportunity Showcase

Thinking about an international study/volunteering/research programme that fits around your degree? 🌍✈️ Join us for The Global Opportunity Showcase (Wednesday 13 November, 13:00-16:00), a lively and exciting event where you can explore short-term international programs that fit your schedule and your sense of adventure. All are welcome - for more info, and to register to attend, head to the event webpage!

Social Mobility Student Research Hub

There are ten paid opportunities for undergraduate and postgraduate taught students from widening participation (WP) backgrounds to propose, plan and then carry out a research project over several months in areas related to WP, social mobility and inclusion. It will run for around six months and formally start with a face-to-face workshop towards the end of February/start of March. For more info, you can attend a webinar on 17 January (13:30-14:15), or visit the Research Hub's website.

Warwick Award

Are you ready to build and develop your employability skills during your time at Warwick? Whether you have a clear career path in mind or are just starting to explore your options, the Warwick Award is your gateway to a successful future.

Why Join the Warwick Award?

- Tailored Skill Development: Identify and hone the skills most important for your post-graduation plans.
- Comprehensive Support: Our Skills team is dedicated to ensuring all Warwick students are prepared for life after graduation.
- Recognition: The award is acknowledged at your graduation ceremony, sitting proudly alongside your degree.

Get Started Today! Join the Warwick Award for free and start building a host of valuable skills. It's optional, but the benefits are immense.

Live Online Guidance starting Thursday 3 October (13:00-14:00), and continuing every week for ten weeks, our dedicated Warwick Award Team will be live online to guide you through the registration process. Learn how to find and sign up for the first few workshops, events, and programmes, and find out which extra-curricular activities you can claim for Award recognition.

Take the next step towards shaping your future. Join the Warwick Award today! Can't make it to the live sessions but you have a question? No problem! Drop us an email at skills@warwick.ac.uk anytime.

Student events and activities

Faculty of Arts Quiz Night

The Faculty team will be holding a monthly quiz night for our students - join us in the FAB Agora on Monday 18 November from 18:00, and pit your wits against our quizmaster for some sweets and other prizes. Entries are free, and no booking is required!

Classics Society charity bake sale

On Wednesday 23 October, members of the Classics Society sold delicious homemade treats in a bake sale for Macmillan Cancer Support. It was fantastic to see the buzz in the Agora at the stall, and the sale raised a lot of money for a great cause!

