

PROFESSOR ZRINKA STAHULJAK (UCLA)

Wartime interpreter, translation theorist, and medievalist Professor Stahuljak will address new approaches to Translation and Interpreting Studies in medieval and contemporary contexts.

INSTITUTE OF ADVANCED STUDIES
INTERNATIONAL
VISITING FELLOW

19-26
FEBRUARY 2019

UNIVERSITY OF WARWICK

Professor Stahuljak will participate in a programme of free events during her visit:

PUBLIC EVENTS

Keynote Lecture: 'Medieval Fixers: For a Connected Literature'

with a response by Professor Susan Bassnett

21 February, 17.00-18.30, Oculus OC1.01, University of Warwick

Roundtable: The Past, Present, and Future of Translation Studies

26 February, 16.00-18.00, Ramphal R2.41, University of Warwick

WORKSHOP SERIES

(registration required; please contact j.sinnett-smith@warwick.ac.uk)

Workshop 1: Translation and Communication

19 February, 11.00-12.30

Workshop 2: Translation, Authorship, and Identity

20 February, 11.00-12.30

Workshop 3: Translation in Historical Perspective

25 February, 11.00-12.30

University of Warwick Nominator: Dr Emma Campbell, French, SMLC

OTHER EVENTS FOR WARWICK STAFF AND STUDENTS

Undergraduate Workshop: War Interpreting (booking required)

19 February, 14.00-15.00, IAS Seminar Room

Reading Group: Translation and War

20 February, 14.00-16.00, IAS Seminar Room

Postgraduate Translation Studies Workshop

25 February, 14.00-15.00, IAS Seminar Room

For further information, contact

j.sinnett-smith@warwick.ac.uk

or visit

<https://warwick.ac.uk/fac/arts/ren/medieval/stahuljak>