

What was migration like in the past?

Come along to find out!

Friday 6 July, 5:30-7 pm

St. John the Baptist Church, Jordan Room,
Church Lane, Berkswell, CV7 7BJ

Join historians from the University of Warwick for an evening of round table discussions about parish migration. Invited speakers will present briefly on a range of topics including short-distance migration, religious mobility and differences and similarities between the past and today. You will then be able to join in with your table for an intimate discussion with each presenter.

Light refreshments will be available throughout the event

Register your free place at <http://bit.ly/parish-migration>

This event has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme, Marie Curie Actions, Project: MIGMED 65711