

NINETEENTH- CENTURY NUMBERS

British Association for Victorian Studies
Annual Conference

Royal Holloway, University of London

29-31 August 2013

The site of Mount Lee, Egham, consisting of ninety-five acres, was selected and conveyed to the trustees in May, 1876.... [Royal Holloway] covers more ground than any other college in the world, forming a double quadrangle measuring 550 feet by 376 feet... The recreation hall, with its superb collection of pictures, cost upwards of £90,000... There are all modern sanitary appliances, and complete systems of electric and gas lighting, and steam heating... The College and Sanatorium together have cost considerably over one million sterling, the munificence of the benefactions being altogether without precedent in this country.

Observer, 20 June 1886

CALL FOR PAPERS AND PANEL PROPOSALS

Submit all proposals by 28 March 2013 to BAVS2013@gmail.com

Enquiries and proposals for themed panels can be sent to:

Ruth Livesey ruth.livesey@rhul.ac.uk or Juliet John juliet.john@rhul.ac.uk

Keynote Speakers : Michael Hatt (University of Warwick)

Alice Jenkins (University of Glasgow) Mary Poovey (NYU)

Theodore Porter (UCLA)

NINETEENTH-CENTURY NUMBERS

British Association for Victorian Studies
Annual Conference
Royal Holloway, University of London
29-31 August 2013

Collecting and cataloguing; replication; periodicals and serials; prosody and metre; music and rhythm; architecture and proportion; sequence and sequels.

Mass culture, mass politics and reform; crowds, population, over population; Malthus and Darwin; proliferation and extinction; the residuum and the best circles.

CALL FOR PAPERS

Research methodologies in the digital era; quantitative and qualitative; corpus linguistics; periodization; information overload.

The one and the many; duration; the infinite; age and aging.

Mathematics; statistics; geometry; time and technology; timetables and navigation; mass mobility; computation; money; finance and economics.

Deadline for abstracts: 28th March 2013.

Please submit 300 word abstracts to BAVS2013@gmail.com.

Visit our blog www.BAVS2013.wordpress.com for regular updates and discussion pages.

Enquiries about proposing themed panels can be sent to ruth.livesey@rhul.ac.uk or juliet.john@rhul.ac.uk