

09.00-10.00	Registration with tea and coffee
10.00-10.30	Conference opening (Room R0.21)
	Panel A (Room R0.03/04)	Panel B (Room R1.13)	Panel C (Room R1.03)
10.30-11.30 Session 1	Jennifer Kitchen: Moments of Awe Vs. Moments of Guffaw: Articulating The Value of Theatre Education through play. (Mixed Methods, Education) Maria Armaou: Exploring teachers' perceptions of job resources (Mixed Methods, Education) Emma Nielsen: Functional dimensions of coping and change in self-harm behaviour. (Quantitative, Psychology)	Sabarinath Krishnan: Public Private Partnership approach for rural development in India (Mixed Methods, International Development) Sameen Zafar: Measuring multidimensional poverty in the Punjab (Quantitative, Economics) Georgia Michailidou: Distributive Justice And Relative Economic Status: Experimental Evidence from Athens (Quantitative, Economics)	Spyridon Terovitis: Impact of more information in capital markets (Quantitative, Economics) Di Luo: Liquidity risk, consumption risk, market risk, and the cross-sectional returns (Quantitative, Economics)
11.30-12.00	Tea and coffee
12.00-13.00 Session 2	Pedro Monteiro: Intra-organizational collaboration (Ethnography, Business) Anna Baiardi: The impact of Candelilla wax production on the economic lives of the people of the Chihuahuan desert in northern Mexico (Quantitative, Economics) Boromeus Wanengkirtyo: Beyond Inventory Management: The Bullwhip Effect and the Great Moderation (Quantitative, Economics)	Man Lei: Teacher understandings of, and responses to the new (2011) PRC English Curriculum Standard (Mixed Methods, Education) Maria Evans: Working title: The disconnect between evidence and practice: why evidence alone isn't enough to change the classroom teaching of Shakespeare (Interviews, Education) Laurence Arnold: Developing a critical approach to autism (Qualitative, Education)	Rogan Collins: Security Matters? Questioning Human Subjects and Technological Objects (Qualitative, Politics) Christoph Koenig: Voting decisions after the Chernobyl disaster (Quantitative, Economics) Raghul Venkatesh: Political Polarization of Elections in US (Theoretical/Quantitative, Economics)

13.00-14.00	Lunch
14.00-15.00 Session 3	Katy Harsant: The role of responsibility within the context of human rights and international intervention (Archive and documentary analysis, Sociology) Qi Chen: Criminal justice in China (Interviews, Law) Raquel Beleza Pereira da Silva: Terrorism in Portugal (Qualitative, Social Policy)	Xian Li: Mandarin teaching in Chinese supplementary schools (Interviews, Education) Huaxing Liu: Public trust in local government in China (Mixed methods, Local Government Studies) Shasha Zhang: Cross-class families (Quantitative, Institute of Applied Social Studies)	Jessica Mason: Relationships between different reading experiences (Observations, Education/Linguistics) Cheryl Cane: The Art of the Lesson – Traversing methodological oxymorons' (Interviews, Education) Andis Sofianos: Understanding the existence of variation in personality traits within the human population (Quantitative, Economics/Psychology)
15.00-15.30	Tea and coffee
15.30-16.50	Panel Discussion (Room R0.21) "Not being able to operate in both quantitative and qualitative methods translates into functional illiteracy."
16.50-17.00	Conference Close
17.00-18.30	Wine Reception
18.30-20.30	Conference Dinner		