Alternative Curricula

Michaelmas 2020: Performative Decolonisation

Reading Lists for all events are available at tinyurl.com/altcurricula.

Race in/and Development

Guest speaker: Dr Robtel Neajai Pailey (LSE)

30 October (Friday of week 3), 5:30pm

Discussion café in conjunction with Uncomfortable Oxford

Decolonisation: theory, metaphor, practice?

11 November (Wednesday of week 5), 5pm

Decolonisation is a powerfully emotive term which is interpreted in multiple ways. In this session we will explore some of the ways that decolonisation has been theorised and discuss the effects of these theorisations.

Race, racism and the institution

25 November (Wednesday of week 7), 5pm

In this session, we will conduct a close reading of some of the University of Oxford's communications on race following the global Black Lives Matter protests of May and June 2020, in conjunction with Sara Ahmed's book On Being Included.

Alternative Curricula sessions are hosted online. For more details and a link to join the conversation, sign up to the Alternative Curricula mailing list at altcurricula@gmail.com.
