The question is not, Can they reason?, nor Can they talk? but, Can they suffer?

Jeremy Bentham
I do not hunt for the joy of killing but for the joy of living, and the inexpressible pleasure of mingling my life however briefly, with that of a wild creature that I respect, admire and value

John Madson
Animals are reliable, many full of love, true in their affections, predictable in their actions, grateful and loyal. Difficult standards for people to live up to

Alfred A. Montapert
Were the walls of our meat industry to become transparent, literally or even figuratively, we would not long continue to raise, kill, and eat animals the way we do.

How much pet obsessed Britain spends on its furry friends.

At least 75% of pet-owners will buy gifts for their pets this season.

One in ten pet-owners will spend over £50 on gifting their pampered pets - the equivalent of 72 jumbo dog biscuits.

66% of pet-owners will spend the same amount, or even more, on their pet than they would on a partner.

Half of pet-owners will buy their family pet at least two presents this Christmas, spending an average of £26.53 in the process.

On average, UK consumers spend £25m on snacks and treats for cats and dogs in grocery outlets throughout December.
