

IATL Student Newsletter November Edition

Subject: News from IATL
From: IATL Office
To: Azorus System <system@azorus.com>

INSTITUTE FOR ADVANCED TEACHING & LEARNING

Hi Azorus,

Welcome to IATL – Where Ideas Come to Life

The Institute for Advanced Teaching and Learning (IATL) is an academic department and is Warwick's hub for educational innovation. Whether you're studying arts, sciences, or anything in between, you can collaborate with us alongside your home department. We're here to help you take your ideas beyond the classroom—through research, enterprise, paid roles, and funding for student-led projects. You are receiving this newsletter either because you've signed up for up (perhaps at Welcome Week), you're taking a module with us, or you're working with us in some other way. If you have friends that you think would be interested in what we have to offer, just get them to sign up to our mailing list.

How You Can Get Involved

Study with Us

Join IATL modules and connect with students and staff from across the university. Together, you'll tackle global challenges from fresh, interdisciplinary perspectives studying modules like The AI Revolution: Ethics, Technology and Society, Global Connections or Genetics: Science and Society. Modules are available to undergraduate and postgraduate students from any department. We also have our first online module now available, with more to come.

My IATL module gave me a fantastic opportunity to explore my degree through a new lens. I had the chance to work with students from other degrees, which helped me to develop my ideas and learning even further. Holly Mankelow, BA English and

Student Research Support

Present and publish your work on global platforms and gain real-world research and presentation experience through our extra-curricular activities and our research-infused curriculum—covering everything from ethics and writing abstracts to creating a research idea and disseminating your work.

Enterprise Opportunities

Got a bold idea? We'll help you bring it to life. Our enterprise-infused curriculum encourages creative thinking and innovation across disciplines. Through IATL's Den, you can access funding to develop your entrepreneurial projects to transform your enterprise or creative learning into reality.

The most valuable thing that I gained from taking part in IATL's Den is a clear sense of direction and validation in my idea through the invaluable feedback of the judges and attendees at the event. Krish Parikh, 2025 IATL's Den participant

Wellbeing Support

Explore wellbeing from multiple angles—scientific, psychological, economic, and philosophical. IATL's Understanding Wellbeing module aims to provide you with a safe space and a helping-hand to begin or continue your own wellbeing journey.

Work With Us

We regularly offer paid roles and collaborative opportunities—including our Co-Creation Officer, ICUR Director and Reinvention Editor roles. Keep an eye on our newsletter where opportunities are advertised.

It's definitely the best job I've ever had. Grace Fisher, Reinvention Editor

Student-Led Projects – Funding Available

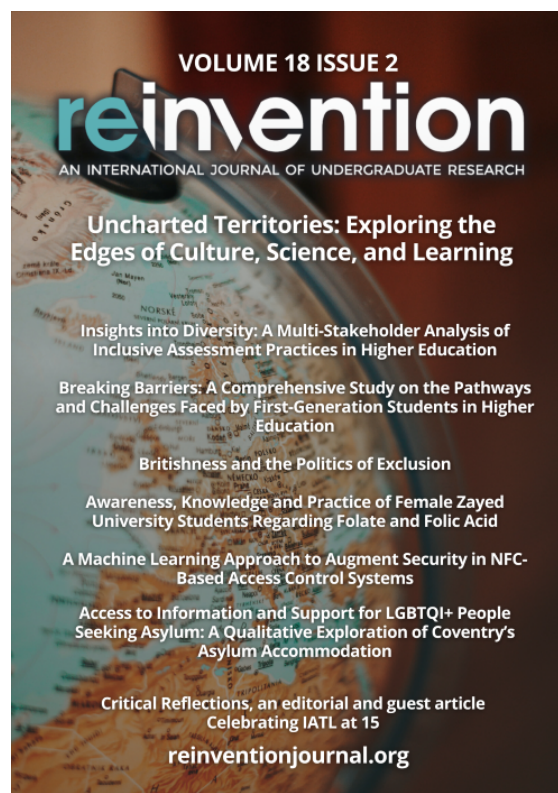

Did you know any Warwick student can apply for funding to launch their own project? We'll release details about this year's schemes later this year. Want to be the first to know? Drop us a line at IATL.ProjectSupport@warwick.ac.uk.

Reinvention Journal – New Issue Out Now!

The latest issue of Reinvention: An International Journal of Undergraduate Research is all about pushing boundaries – with the theme Uncharted Territories, it explores fresh ideas in culture, science and learning.

Reinvention issue

IATL New Modules Survey 2025 – win £50!

Are you a current IATL student or have taken a module from 2024-25?

You can help shape IATL's future by filling out a three minute survey and may also win you £50 in vouchers to spend on campus.

Understanding Wellbeing – A Flexible Online Module for All Warwick Students

Take a moment for your wellbeing this year with IATL's Understanding Wellbeing online module. Designed with students, for students, this self-paced course explores wellbeing not just as personal health, but as a global, social, and academic issue.

Complete sections to earn Level Certificates, HEAR accreditation, and points toward the Warwick Award. No CATS, no pressure—just space to reflect and learn.

New! Building Wellbeing Literacy – Open Access for Warwick Early Career Researchers

Tackle the ups and downs of research life with Building Wellbeing Literacy—a set of online resources co-created by PhD students and postdocs, just for early career researchers.

Explore 25+ wellbeing topics through bite-sized videos, podcasts, infographics, and animations—all grounded in academic research and designed to support your journey.

Available now on Moodle. Flexible, free, and open to all Warwick ECRs.

Social Mobility Student Research Hub – Apply Now

Are you from a widening participation (WP) background and keen to lead your own research?

The Social Mobility Student Research Hub is now open for applications! Find out more and apply via their webpages.

Are you a Mature Undergraduate Student?

The Student Experience team wants to hear from you! Share your experiences, challenges, and ideas to help shape a more supportive university environment — and be in with a chance to win a £5 Warwick Food/Drink Voucher!

Survey closes: 21st Nov 2025

Fill out the survey now

Your voice matters — make it count!

Your Digital, Your Learning

How does studying online affect you? If you are a student in higher education, tell us in a quick, anonymous survey – it only takes 10 minutes.

Survey

Webinar: Have your Research Heard at UK Parliament - 2-3 pm 19th November

Want your ideas to reach the halls of power? Join Damien Arness-Dalton, Senior Outreach Officer at UK Parliament, for a fast-paced, information packed session.

PIP 2026

IATL Student Café – Every Wednesday, 1–3pm

Join us in the IATL kitchen (2nd Floor, Senate House) for tea, biscuits, and great conversation. Whether you're looking to collaborate, unwind, or chat with students who've taken IATL modules, this is your midweek moment.

Week 9 Spotlight: Serious Tabletop Games Café

Meet last year's students, current exec for Warwick Tabletop Society, and module leader Deveon as they showcase their creations and share insights from the module and Expo.

IATL Global Connections - Go Global Event 19th November

IATL will be at the Go Global Event on the 19th November, 13:00 - 16:00. Pop along and chat to us about our International Conference of Undergraduate Research (ICUR) and our Global Connections (Eutopia) module.

Global Connections Event

Follow IATL on social media platforms Instagram and LinkedIn to stay up to date with IATL news.

Best wishes,

Institute for Advanced Teaching and Learning (IATL)

Institute for Advanced Teaching and Learning (IATL)

Data and Privacy

The University of Warwick, University House, Coventry, CV4 8UW, United Kingdom

Unsubscribe

Communication Preferences