Welcome to our eleventh MITN newsletter.

We hope you have successfully registered to the events that have been advertised in our previous Newsletters. If not - we will remind you how to do it and will tell about new opportunities!

Have a look at the webpage for PG/ECR MITN activities. We’d love to hear your feedback. Let us know if you would like to have a profile on the MITN website as a postgraduate or early career researcher. To do that, please, contact the representative at your University.

If you would like us to publish something for you in the next newsletter, which will be released in August, please send it to us by the 30 of July 2017.

Please, contact Newsletter Coordinator Olha for any news update queries

Best wishes,
MITN Postgraduate Representatives and Coordinators Team

Nine MITN members presented their projects at iMean 5 conference on 6th - 8th April, UWE,
Seven of the 'Identity and Workplace Communication' MITN cluster members (Rachel Chimbwete-Phiri, Daniel Clayton, Christina Efthymiadou, Kristina Humonen, Polina Mesinioti, Chiara Nardone and Kyoungmi Kim) participated in the iMean 5 conference in UWE Bristol and held a panel 'Exploring multidisciplinarity in workplace studies'. The panel presentations brought together perspectives of professional communication fields, and was followed by a round table discussion facilitated by Jo Angouri and Meredith Marra and a publishing workshop by Multilingual Matters. The panel was well attended and our work was very well received attracting many nice comments.
Keep an eye out for updates regarding MITN events on our Facebook Page and Twitter. If you have any questions regarding Social Media, please contact Gwyn.
