MITN Postgraduate and Early Career Researchers

Newsletter n°4, April 2016

Welcome to our fourth MITN PG/ECR newsletter, which offers opportunities for conference presentations, translation publications and project participation. Please note that we have recently set up a webpage that presents all PG/ECR MITN activities (here), we hope you find it useful to keep track of our initiatives. The next session of the reading group coordinated by the 'City, Space and Place' cluster is approaching, and updated information on the 'Performing narratives' cluster will be advertised soon. If you would like us to publish something for you in the next newsletter, please send it to us by the 22nd of May.

Best wishes,

Jessica and Gioia

Collaborative Translation Project

A group of MITN PG/ECRs are building a research project about collaborative translations. The project explores how two or more participants with complimentary skill sets can collaboratively share functions of the translation process. The current areas of focus include:

- Literary translation (Chris Griffiths for the project Shakespeare and translation, and Alice Whitmore)
- Filipino migration in Australia (Reagan Maiquez and Marlon James Sales)
- Language Learning in the UK (Gioia Panzarella and Georgia Wall)

For more info, please contact Jessica or Gioia.
