MITN Postgraduate and Early Career Researchers

Newsletter 1, January 25 2016

Dear all,

Welcome to our inaugural MITN PG/ECR newsletter!

This will be sent out each month to keep everyone up to date on projects, events and opportunities that might be of interest.

It will include details about projects underway, requests for collaborators, Calls for papers, reports on recent events, achievement recognitions... and anything else you would like to hear about.

If you would like us to publish something in the upcoming newsletter, please send it to us by the 22nd of February.

Best wishes,

Jessica and Gioia

CFPs

MITN is proud to sponsor the Asian Translation Traditions 7 Conference at the Monash Malaysia campus in September 2016. This conference seeks to explore the ethics of translation in a transforming Asia from the perspective of Asian Translation Traditions (ATT). Revised deadline for submission is midnight January 30 2016 (AEDT).

Projects

Shakespeare and Translation project

Chris Griffiths (Monash) is hoping to connect with a postgraduate or early career researcher from Warwick who has a background in German Studies and who would be interested in collaborating on his Shakespeare and Translation project. It would involve 7 - 10 days of collaboration in the UK and/or Germany in July or August this year. Chris is applying to draw from Alliance funding to pay for any travel from UK to Germany. Please email Christian (christian.griffiths@monash.edu) if you are interested.
