

DEVELOPED BY

WARWICK CHEMISTRY

The logo for the Diversity Book Club. The word 'Diversity' is written in a playful, multi-colored font where each letter is on a separate piece of paper or card. Below it, the words 'BOOK CLUB' are written in a simple, black, sans-serif font.

Diversity
BOOK CLUB

SELF-REFLECTIVE QUESTIONS

Acknowledgments

We thank the Royal Society of Chemistry for funding this work, through the Diversity and Inclusion Fund.

We also want to acknowledge the contributions from members of Warwick Chemistry, including representatives from the Warwick Chemistry STEM and Diversity Group, Warwick Postdoctoral Society of Chemistry and Warwick ChemSoc, who made this project happen.

We are grateful to Warwick Chemistry for enabling us to pilot this initiative.

The project is led by Zoë Ayres and Bo Kelestyn, and booklet lead Alex Baker, with support and guidance from Adam Alcock, Louis Ammon, Leanne Loveitt, Ally McLoughlin, Maria Kariuki, Kathryn Murray, Tania Read and Michael Staniforth.

All Diversity Book Club materials are brought to you as open access to enable you start your own club, through the hard work of the above individuals. We ask if you use these materials to keep the Acknowledgement Section in the Booklets you use and credit the Chemistry Department of the University of Warwick.

Self-Reflective Questions post-discussion sessions

- Did you feel that the book/session had any impact on your understanding of diversity? - Y/N
- What had the most impact (please state if positive or negative) on you and your understanding of diversity?
- What did you take away from the book/activity/meeting?
- Was there anything you learnt or took away from the group discussion that you might not have gained otherwise? - Y/N. Please give reason for your answer
- Has the session had any impact on how you feel as part of a Chemistry community? Y/N. Please give reason for your answer
- How likely are you to find out more or read more about diversity after attending the session? Very unlikely, unlikely, neutral, likely, very likely. Please give reason for your answer
- What actions, if any, are you likely to take as a result of reading/attending?
- How can we improve the next session?

Note: Setting up an online anonymous form is useful.