International Network of Women Engineers & Scientists

INWES is a global network of organizations of women in STEM, with Organizational Members, Corporate Members, University Members, and Individual Members, all together representing about 250,000 women from over 40 countries worldwide.

"To build a better future worldwide through full and effective participation of women and girls in all aspects of STEM"

- 1964: the Continuing Committee for the International Conferences for Women Engineers and Scientists (ICWES)
- 2002: INWES established (ICWES 12)
- 2004: Incorporated in Canada as a not-for-profit corporation
- 2008: Official NGO partner of UNESCO with consultative status
- 2017: Consultative status of UN Economic and Social Council

"As a solution to tackle the issue of gender imbalances in STEM, UNESCO aims to support and promote networks of women scientists in various scientific domains and regions, such as, among others, ... the International Network of Women Engineers and Scientists."

International Conference of Women Engineers & Scientists

ICWES is the flagship event of INWES which is an international conference for women engineers and scientists held every 3-4 years since 1964.

The first ICWES (ICWES 1) was hosted by SWE in New York, USA, 1964 ICWES 2 (1967), ICWES 3 (1971), ICWES 4 (1975), ICWES 5 (1978), ICWES 9 (1991), ICWES 10 (1996), ICWES 14 (2008), ICWES18 (2021)were held in Europe ICWES 18 was most recently held and was the first virtual ICWES, hosted by U Warwick, UK, 2020(21)

ICWES19 will be held in hybrid format in New Zealand (AWIS & EngNZ), 2023
