

Celebrating 70 years of research on vegetables and other crops at the Wellesbourne Campus

Programme
10.30	Arrival and coffee
11.00	Professor Lorenzo Frigerio, Head of the School of Life Sciences, University of Warwick	Welcome and introduction to the day	Chair: Professor Lorenzo Frigerio
11.10	Professor Rosemary Collier, Warwick Crop Centre, School of Life Sciences	Brief history of NVRS, IHR, HRI and University of Warwick (Warwick Crop Centre, School of Life Sciences) at the Wellesbourne Campus	Chair: Professor Lorenzo Frigerio
11.20	Key note speaker – Professor Tim Lang, City University	The importance of vegetables in the UK!	Chair: Professor Lorenzo Frigerio

12.00	Dr Graham Teakle, Dr Guy Barker, Dr Charlotte Allender – School of Life Sciences and UK Vegetable Gene Bank, University of Warwick  Sue Kennedy - Elsoms Seeds  Professor Eric Holub	Vegetable genetics and breeding – past, present and future.  2B Healthy GB	Chair: Professor Lorenzo Frigerio
13.00	Lunch and networking.
14.00	Professor Ian Burns Professor Bill Finch-Savage Dr John Clarkson Professor John Walsh Professor Rosemary Collier Dr Dave Chandler School of Life Sciences, University of Warwick	Reflections on vegetable research – past, present and future	Chair: Professor Eric Holub
15.15	Professor Ian Crute	Summing up and depart	Chair: Professor Eric Holub

With thanks to the School of Life Sciences and University of Warwick Food Global Research Priority for supporting this event.