

VeGIN: The Vegetable Genetic Improvement Network

Stakeholder Event

Wednesday 14th January 9:30am - 3:30pm

9:30	Registration and coffee
10:00	Welcome and Introduction	Guy Barker (University of Warwick)
10:15	Vegetable breeding for the UK: challenges and successes	Jamie Claxton (Director of Research and Development, Tozer Seeds Ltd)
11:00	Student Session: Presentations from students working on VeGIN related projects	MBio and PhD students from the University of Warwick, Harper Adams University & NIAB
12:30	Challenges for vegetable production in Sweden	Stina Andersson (Field Vegetable Advisor, HIR Skane, Sweden)
13:00	Lunch
14:00	Research roadmaps for crops	Rosemary Collier (University of Warwick)
15:00	VeGIN updates on crop responses to climate change	Ashley Garrison (Harper Adams University)
15:10	VeGIN updates on resistance to pests and diseases	Lauren Chappell (University of Warwick)
15:20	Wrap up	Jim Monaghan (Harper Adams University)
15:30	End

Project Contact: Guy.Barker@warwick.ac.uk; Website warwick.ac.uk/vegin

Department for Environment
Food & Rural Affairs

UNIVERSITY OF WARWICK

Met Office

Harper Adams
University