

Joint Collaborators Meeting: NIHR Trials in Orthopaedic Trauma AIM Trial & DRAFFT

Date: 27th September 2012

Venue: 76 Portland Place, London

Expenses: The day is free with refreshments and lunch provided. All second class travel expenses (receipts required for all claims made) will be covered.

Chairs: Professor Keith Willett and Professor Matthew Costa

- 10.00 Registration/coffee
- 10.30 Meeting start: introductions and overview of day
- 10.45 AIM study update
- 11.00 DRAFFT study update
- 11.15 WOLLF study update
- 11.30 Questions / identification of key recruitment issues / open discussion
- 12.00 Guest speaker 1: Professor Sallie Lamb, Kadoorie Professor of Trauma Rehabilitation at the University of Oxford and Director of Warwick Clinical Trials Unit
“NIHR Health Technology Assessment programme: what it is and creating a successful application”
- 12:45 Lunch
- 13.30 Parallel sessions:
- Option 1: AIM: Practical CCC application demonstration and discussion
- Option 2: WOLLF: Vac pump practical session
- Option 3: Next year’s trials
- 14.30 Guest speaker 2: Professor Jagdeep Nanchahal, Professor of Hand, Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery at the Kennedy Institute of Rheumatology, University of Oxford: “Accelerating healing of fractures in normal and osteoporotic bone by targeted upregulation of cytokines”
- 15.15 Review of the day
- 15.30 Close