Dear [XXX]

Re: Paramedic Analgesia Comparing Ketamine and MorphiNe in trauma: PACKMaN

We are [sending/giving] you this letter because [patient name] was taken to hospital due to their injury. The [XXX Ambulance Service] that treated [patient name] is working with the University of Warwick and local hospitals as part of a clinical trial called PACKMaN.

The PACKMAN trial is looking at the effectiveness of a drug called ketamine compared to morphine.

The experience of [patient name] with their injury and treatment is invaluable to the trial and may help to determine treatment for patients in the future.

The enclosed information sheet provides detailed information relating to the trial. All references to “you” are intended to be references to [patient name].

We would like the opportunity to discuss this study with you on behalf of [patient name] because they are unable to decide for themselves if they would like to take part in the trial. A member of our trial team [local Research Paramedic name] (details below) is available to answer any questions. Please could you use the reply slip enclosed to indicate if you want to hear more or opt out of further follow up.

Yours sincerely,

[XXXX]
