

Digital Technology in Primary Care Special Interest Group -

21st October 2021. 9.30am-12.30pm

'Showcase - the Covid-19 world and digital primary care'

		Session chair
9.15-9.30	Informal chat/ Networking
9.30- 9.45	Welcome and Introduction	Helen Atherton
9.45-9.55	Networking shuffle
9.55-10.45	Digital Primary Care &amp; remote services	Jo Parsons and Nicky Thomas
	Professor Jeremy Horwood, University of Bristol. 'The implementation of remote consulting in UK primary care following the COVID-19 pandemic: the mixed-methods longitudinal RAPCI study.'
	Dr Jill Christy, Queen's University Belfast. 'Instinct, intuition or illogical?' The lived experiences of GP trainees managing uncertainty in remote consulting.'
	Dr Jeffrey Lambert, University of Bath. 'Facilitating access to online NHS primary care services - current experience and future potential (Di-Facto): The Practice Survey.'
	Dr Sarah Rybczńska-Bunt, Plymouth University. 'Leaving no one behind? Understanding and managing tensions between utilitarian, universal and inclusive perspectives on remote service design for complex needs groups.'
10.45-10.55	Break
10.55-11.45	Application of Digital Technologies	Jo Parsons and Nicky Thomas
	Miss Jamie Hertel, University College London. 'Effectiveness, feasibility, and acceptability of interactive digital interventions for treatment of sexual difficulties: a systematic review.'
	Dr Yvette Pyne, University of Bristol. 'Natural Language Processing of Primary Care Consultations.'
	Ms Gemma Donovan, University of Sunderland. 'Development of an initial realist programme theory for patient engagement within a two-way automated text messaging intervention for medication taking.'
	Professor Ala Szczepura, Coventry University. 'Developing a Digital Ecosystem for Carers & the new Integrated Care Systems.'

---

11.45-11.55.	Networking shuffle
11.55-12.00	Break
12.00-12.20	Policy Q&A session with Dr Minal Bakhai : Deputy Director and Clinical Lead for Digital First Primary Care at NHS England and a practising GP.	Helen Atherton
12.20-12.30	Thanks and close	Helen Atherton

---