

Digital Technology in Primary Care Special Interest Group

7th December 2023. 10am-12pm

Christmas research showcase

		Session chair
10-10.05	Welcome and Introduction	Helen Atherton
10.05-10.25	Plenary speaker: Dr Jennifer Newbould RAND Europe Title: Digital first primary care for patients with multiple long-term conditions: the views of staff and stakeholders	Helen Atherton
10.25-11.05	Session 1, 8 minute presentations, 3 minutes for questions Professor Vicki Goodwin, University of Exeter: Advanced practitioners working with older people in primary care and community settings: a mixed methods online survey of roles and use of technology Dr Xiancheng Li, Queen Mary, University of London: The AD HOC intervention: assessing the effects of patient engagement with an online health community (OHC) using sentiment analysis. Mrs Rebecca Gudka, University of Exeter: Provision of digital health interventions for young people with ADHD in primary care: findings from a national survey and scoping review	Nicky Thomas
11.05-11.15	Break
11.15-11.40	Session 2, 5 minute presentations, 2 minutes for questions Dr Ratna Sohanpal, Centre for Primary Care, Wolfson Institute of Population Health, Queen Mary University of London: Exploring the inclusivity of remote health care delivery in chronic obstructive pulmonary disease among patients, their carers and interpreters – a qualitative study. Dr Shoba Poduval, eHealth Unit, Research Department of Primary Care & Population Health, University College London: Do community-based digital health inclusion programmes contribute to tackling health inequalities in disadvantaged population groups? Edward Tyrell, University of Nottingham: Use of artificial intelligence driven voice recognition for training communication and consultation skills in undergraduate primary care	Nicky Thomas
11.40-11.55	Networking shuffle with a Christmas twist
11.55-12.00	Prizegiving and close	Helen Atherton

