

Magnetoresistance in the region of the second Landau level, exhibiting a rich variety of ground states. The fractional quantum Hall states labeled by their quantum number are believed to have exotic quantum correlations.