STAFF DEVELOPMENT

Academic Promotions: register for Q&A session

Applying for academic promotion in the Academic Year 2022/23, or supporting a colleague to do so? You may wish to attend a remote Q&A session on 14 or 19 October, when Chris Ennew, our Provost, will discuss the promotions framework in detail. Find out more and register.

Note the ASWG are hoping to put on some role-specific events later in the term – keep an eye out.

Subject: Applications open for this year's Warwick Academic Shadowing Scheme

The Academic Shadowing Scheme aims to support the leadership development of research and teaching and research focused and teaching focused colleagues currently at Professor, Reader or Associate Professor levels (or equivalent on teaching focused or research focused contracts). The scheme offers participants a rare insight in how the University operates at a senior leadership level.

Successful applicants will have:

- A senior person to shadow
- A greater understanding of the structures at Warwick, including its management structure
- Specific insights into operating in leadership roles and decision-making processes
- Increased knowledge of the broader environment within which the University of Warwick operates and the strategic management issues addressed by senior management
- The opportunity to raise their profile among senior management
- Increased confidence in operating at senior decision-making levels
- Enhanced networking opportunities with members of the senior management team

We're seeking applicants from both those looking to shadow as well as from senior academic staff to volunteer to be shadowed.

The How Warwick Works Scheme is now open for applications until noon, Friday 14th October. Further details and application forms can be found here.

NEWS FROM THE LIBRARY Sam Johnson – Subject Librarian

Sage Research Methods:

<https://0-methods-sagepub-com.pugwash.lib.warwick.ac.uk/>

A new resource providing access to books, videos, podcasts, datasets and cases covering a whole variety of quantitative and qualitative research methods, including systematic reviews and mixed methods.

There are a couple of very useful research tools:

Project Planner: step by step guide to the research process from thinking about a research question, searching the literature, research ethics, data collection and writing up.

Methods Map: a visualization of how different research methods are connected

It is recommended that students and staff create a profile. This will restrict access to the content that we have subscribed to and allows you to save content into a personalized reading list. Content can be downloaded, shared and embedded into Moodle.

New! Library Click and Collect service.

Customers can order up to 10 books from off our shelves using the online form, and then pick them up from the collection point in Short Loan, Floor 1 at the main Library when they are ready.

The collection point will be open between 08:30 - 24:00, Monday to Sunday

You will receive an email notification to your email address when your books are ready for collection. The email will detail how to collect your items and where to check them out to yourself. Please be aware that it may take up to 48 hours to process your request. If the books that you have requested are out on loan, it will take longer to process the request as we will need to ask the borrower to return them.

INFORMATION FOR POSTGRADUATES

Subject: [Psych-postgrads] Fw: Learn to use the SOEP over lunch | 3x online workshop series (25.10., 02.11., 14.12.2022)

Dear Postgrads,

Please see the email below about an online series of workshops on how to use the SOEP data.

The German Socio-Economic Panel (SOEP) is a longitudinal survey of approximately 11,000 private households in the Federal Republic of Germany from 1984 to 2020 (release 2022) and the eastern German länder from 1990 to 2020

(release 2022). The database is produced by the Deutsches Institut für Wirtschaftsforschung (DIW), Berlin. Variables include household composition, employment, occupation, earnings, health and satisfaction indicators. Information about the update is on this DIW support page.

It's an amazingly rich dataset and can be freely accessed by anyone (after signing a contract with the SOEP) for their research.

Best wishes

Subject: [soep-nl] SOEPcampus@Home: Learn to use the SOEP over lunch | 3x online workshop series (25.10., 02.11., 14.12.2022)

Dear colleagues,

from next month on we offer an online workshop series over lunchtime as introduction to the data of the SOEP study. Participants will be introduced to the content of the study, its data-structure, sample selection and weighting strategy and they will be provided with an overview on the study documentation.

To join the workshop, please register (name, institution) with Janina Britzke (jbritzke@diw.de) until October 25, 2022. To allow for last-minute sign-ups, invitations with the link to the online-platform as well as materials will be sent out on the morning of October 26, 2022.

There is no limitation on participants - so everyone will get a spot. The workshop will be held in English and participation is free of charge.

Subject: [Psych-postgrads] FW: Civil service behavioural science role

Hello,

I lead a behavioural science team in BEIS which supports Energy & Net Zero policy. I am currently recruiting for a role which would suit a PhD graduate or an MSc graduate with professional research experience: Net Zero Buildings Behavioural & Social Researcher.

It is an exciting opportunity to pioneer behavioural science in BEIS and work on crucial policy issues, from decarbonising buildings to the energy crisis. The role closes on 9th October and would require a brief CV, personal statement & technical skills example.

I am more than happy to speak to anyone who is interested to further discuss the role and application process.

Let me know if you need further information.

Best wishes,
Ellie

ESRC and ADR UK Studentships - Call from Midlands Graduate School

Further to the call for the supervisor-led Joint and Collaborative competitions yesterday, the MGS is pleased to launch our internal call for proposals for the ESRC and ADR UK studentships using linked administrative data. Details of the ESRC/ADR UK call are available here: <https://www.ukri.org/opportunity/host-phd-studentships-using-linked-administrative-data/>

They will be awarding up to 20 studentships nationally through this call via the DTPs, and each DTP can put forward up to 4 proposals for consideration. We are therefore inviting proposals from colleagues interested in working with linked administrative datasets, and details of how to apply to the MGS, along with all relevant call documents and the timeline, are available on our website:

https://warwick.ac.uk/fac/cross_fac/mgsdtp/collaborativeandjoint/adruk/. I have also attached the MGS application form here, but would recommend that colleagues take a look at the guidance on the website.

The MGS Management Committee will review and score all received proposals in order to select the strongest to put forward to ESRC/ADR UK. We may be able to put more forward if we can co-fund the studentships from our existing grant; we are currently awaiting an answer from ESRC/ADR UK on this point.

There is quite a tight timeframe for this call, as the final deadline for the DTP to submit our application to ESRC/ADR UK is 21st October, and so the deadline for proposals from supervisors to be submitted by email to the MGS is Monday 3rd October. Outcomes will be issued to applicants on 14th October.

2022/23 Competitions Now Live - Midlands Graduate School ESRC DTP

The Midlands Graduate School ESRC DTP has now opened all 3 funding competitions – Open, Collaborative and Joint. I would be most grateful if you could distribute information on these calls within your departments.

Open Competition

All information regarding the open competition has been updated on the MGS website: www.mgsdtp.ac.uk/studentships/howtoapply/. This year the closing date for student-led Open Competition applications will be Tuesday 24th January 2023 (23:59 GMT).

I will begin wider promotion of the Open Competition on social media after the bank holiday next week, as there are currently certain restrictions on what university-linked accounts are able to post, and advertising campaigns will go live on jobs.ac.uk and FindAPhD during October.

Supervisor-led Collaborative & Joint Competitions

Those academics wishing to submit a Collaborative Studentship proposal should do so using the attached 'Collaborative Studentship 2023 Application Form'. Those academics wishing to submit a Joint Studentship proposal should do so using the attached 'Joint Studentship 2023 Application Form'

Prior to applying for either competition, applicants must ensure they read the 'Guidance Notes for Academic Applicants for Joint and Collaborative Studentships' which are also attached to this email.

Proposals should be submitted as an email attachment with 'ESRC DTP Collaborative Application' or 'ESRC DTP Joint Application' (depending on the competition you are applying for) in the subject line to the ESRC DTP office: esrcdtp@warwick.ac.uk by the deadline of Wednesday 16th November 2022.

Details of both calls along with the application forms can also be found online at: www.mgsdtp.ac.uk/collaborativeandjoint/academics. This is a password protected page with the login: 2023collabjointcall

I would like to share the overview slides of recently published EPSRC Delivery Plan (attached). Many EPSRC calls including CDT call will require the proposals to align with this delivery plan, so please share this within Dep.

Also, could I please ask you to circulate to your department a reminder to fill and submit NoI form (attached) if any of newly developed EPSRC CDT bids haven't been reported to us? This will help us to prepare for the expected pre-announcement to be released in mid-late Oct from EPSRC.

The third call for EUTOPIA SIF fellowships is now open (SEE ATT).

The Fellowship provides two years of funding for early career researchers and gives them the opportunity to develop their research at two EUTOPIA universities (co-hosts), with a placement at an external partner institution. The programme focuses on five key research areas: materials engineering; data & intelligence; health; sustainability; welfare & inclusion. Successful applicants at Warwick are based at the Institute of Advanced Study (IAS) and will develop their independent research profiles and undertake training to help establish an academic career.

JSPS London Pre/Postdoctoral Fellowship for Foreign Researchers (Short Term) Application Deadline: Monday 7th November, 2022 Fellowships must start between: 1st April 2023 to 31st March 2024

Japan Society for the Promotion of Science (JSPS) is the leading research funding agency in Japan, established by the Japanese Government for the purpose of contributing to the advancement of science. Our Pre/Postdoctoral Fellowship for Foreign Researchers (Short Term) provides the opportunity for short-term visits for UK, European, North American and Canadian researchers ordinarily based in the UK or Ireland to do cooperative research with leading research groups at Japanese Universities and Institutions. The programme is designed to provide researchers with first-hand experience of the research and living environment in Japan, whilst expanding academic exchange between Japan and the UK or Ireland. Researchers from any field; Computer, Engineering, Health, Biological, Life, Natural and Physical Sciences, Mathematics, Humanities and Social Sciences etc. are eligible to apply. Awards will cover visits of 1 to 12 months.

Eligible applicants also need to be either within 2 years of finishing their PhD at the time of applying to start their fellowship in Japan or have obtained their PhD at a university outside of Japan within the last 6 years (on or after 2nd April 2017).

Please visit the JSPS London website here for further information:

DSTL have announced a call for funding entitled "Information Disorder & Confrontation". Please find the relevant documents attached to this email.

The deadline for submissions is 6th October 2022 at 17:00.

If anyone is interesting in applying for this call, then please feel free to contact Alex Glazer.

Advanced Research and Invention Agency: Opportunity to Propose Roundtable Discussion Topics

Dear colleagues,

The new Advanced Research and Invention Agency (ARIA) is seeking input from the research community on ways ARIA can support transformative research. They are seeking to hold a series of roundtable discussions with researchers which will help shape ARIA's future vision and identify areas where investment could have a transformative impact. Roundtables will be attended by ARIA's newly appointed CEO, Ilan Gur.

Background

ARIA has been established by the government with an initial investment of £800M to support high risk transformative research and innovation – more details about the policy rationale for ARIA's creation can be found here: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/advanced-research-and-invention-agency-aria-statement-of-policy-intent/advanced-research-and-invention-agency-aria-policy-statement>.

How to take part:

Anyone interested in proposing a roundtable discussion should complete the online proposal form which can be found here: ARIA Roundtable Discussion Proposal Form. The current deadline for submitting proposals is 30th September 2022.

The details of what ARIA is seeking in a roundtable discussion proposal are as follows:

- Describe in less than 300 words where and how investment from ARIA could have a transformative impact that is otherwise unlikely.
 - Examples of how you might frame your roundtable pitch:
 - Contrary to popular belief, transformational change is possible in field X because of Y
 - The intersection of field X and field Y holds tremendous promise but is underfunded.
 - In 10 years, nascent field X will be seen as mainstream and high impact; ARIA has a chance to accelerate it.
 - Field X would deliver enormous impact if only funded in this novel way Y.
 - The UK research enterprise has a unique strength in X that could deliver enormous impact if only supported in this novel way Y.
- Suggest 5-7 other invitees who could best contribute to the roundtable discussion: include their email, organisation, and one sentence biographies.

Advice from ARIA:

- We aren't looking for polished pitches, your proposal should take less than 20 minutes to draft.
- We aren't seeking programme proposals at this stage - the roundtables should be seen as brainstorm sessions with zero expectation of subsequent funding from ARIA.
- We are looking for diverse perspectives from roundtable attendees - try to suggest invitees from different institutions, backgrounds, geographies, etc.
- Seniority and job title of the proposer or attendees does not matter.
- Roundtables will be held under Chatham House rules to encourage an open and honest exchange of ideas.
- We will review requests to host a roundtable on a rolling basis. If selected, we will contact you and other invitees directly to arrange the virtual roundtable. ARIA's CEO, Ilan Gur, will attend each roundtable.

If you are submitting a proposal for a roundtable discussion we would be grateful if you could share a copy with Research and Impact Services so we can track ideas being submitted by colleagues across Warwick and provide any future support that may be required should you be selected to host a Roundtable discussion – please notify us via ResearchStrategyDev@warwick.ac.uk.

GREEN INITIATIVES

As part of the Hedgehog Friendly Campus initiative we are taking part in the Big Hog Friendly Litter Pick Challenge, which runs from 19th September to 30th November 2022. The University that collects the most litter between the specified dates will win a hedgehog house and food for the campus. It would be great to win but it's definitely more about getting involved and playing our part in reducing litter and making spaces safer for wildlife.

We are running a number litter pick on campus for both staff and students. The sessions will last for about an hour but if you need to leave early you can do. Bags, gloves and pickers will all be provided.

Please sign up below if you are interested in helping out! You will be contacted with meeting details nearer the time.
