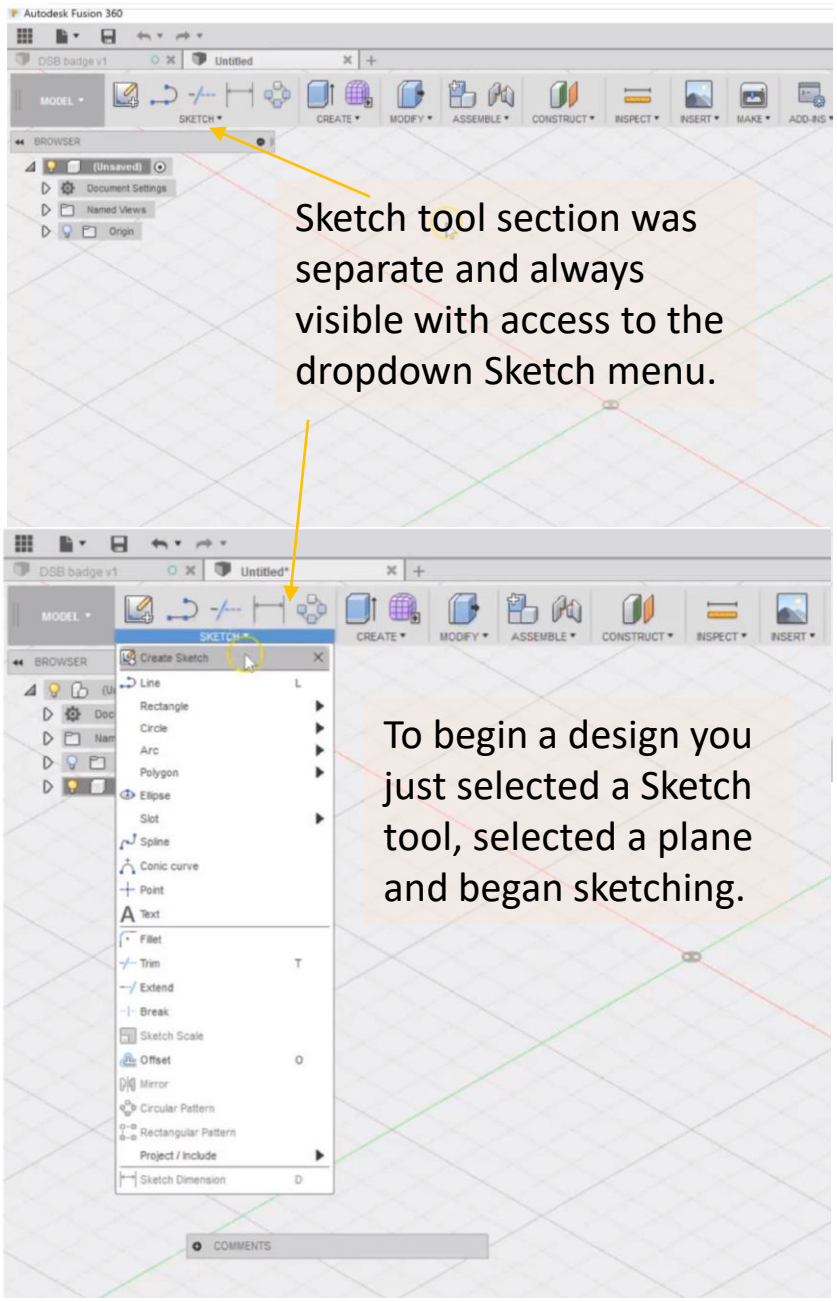
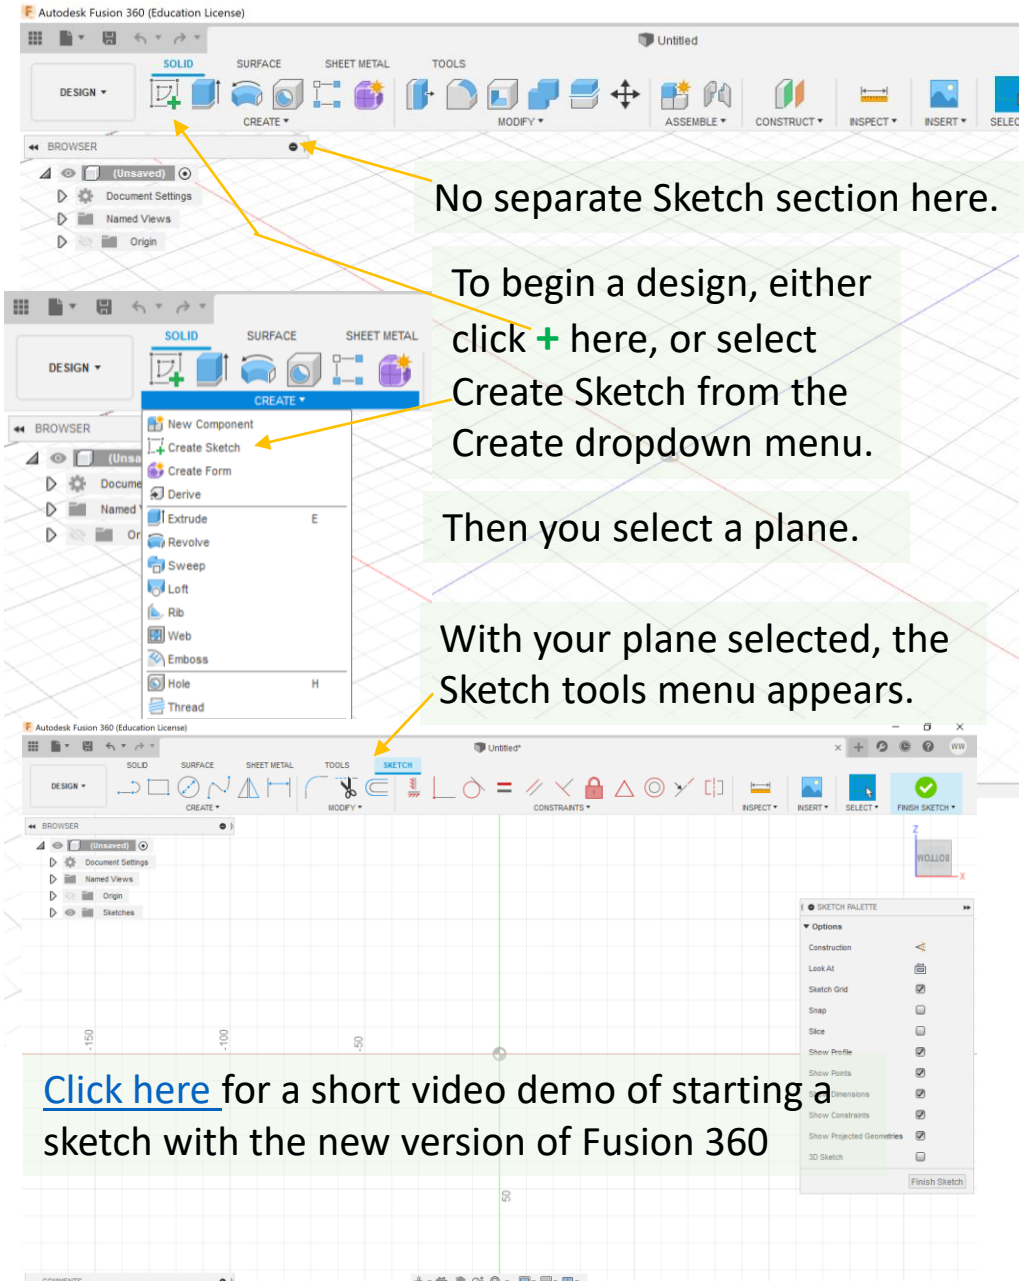
Old version home screen



Sketch tool section was separate and always visible with access to the dropdown Sketch menu.

To begin a design you just selected a Sketch tool, selected a plane and began sketching.

New version home screen



No separate Sketch section here.

To begin a design, either click + here, or select Create Sketch from the Create dropdown menu.

Then you select a plane.

With your plane selected, the Sketch tools menu appears.

Click here for a short video demo of starting a sketch with the new version of Fusion 360