

12th Warwick Postgraduate Conference in Applied Linguistics 2009

The Centre for Applied Linguistics at the University of Warwick is pleased to announce its 12th Postgraduate Conference on Wednesday, 17th June 2009.

Aim

The aim of the Postgraduate Conference is provide postgraduate students with the opportunity to present their research, to attend experts' keynote presentations, to meet peers who engage in similar research activities, to practise their presentation skills, and to get valuable feedback on their research.

Call for Papers

We invite postgraduate students to submit an abstract for either a paper or a poster presentation on one of the following four themes:

- Language Learning and Pedagogy
- Working and Communicating Across Cultures
- Professional and Academic Discourse
- Teacher Education and Development

Abstracts are for either paper or poster presentations. The deadline for receipt of abstract is the 15th May 2009. Abstracts must be submitted electronically as a Microsoft Word document attachment to the conference organisers at C.Harsch@warwick.ac.uk.

Your abstract must include the following information:

- The title
- Name and affiliation of the author(s)
- Contact numbers and email address(es)
- Whether you wish it to be a paper or a poster presentation

The abstract should be no more than 250 words in length (excluding the above information).

Abstracts will be selected and approved by the conference committee. Accepted papers and posters will be notified by 29th May 2008.

Single papers will be allocated 20 minutes for presentation, including 10 minutes for questions and discussion, and posters will be on display all day.

Important Dates

Deadline for submission of abstracts: 15th MAY 2009

Authors of accepted papers will be notified no later than 29th MAY 2009