

14th Warwick International Postgraduate Conference in Applied Linguistics 2011

Tuesday 28th June
Ramphal Building, R0.12

Speakers for the Pre-Conference Workshops
Malcolm McDonald "A short history of systems of thought- and their consequences"

Steve Mann "Reflexivity of researcher's role: how should researchers present themselves in their theses?"

Emi Ushioda "Cherry-picking and anecdotalism - how not to report research"

Annamaria Pinter "Dilemmas in conducting research with younger language learners"

Stephanie Schnurr "Exploring professional discourse"

Wednesday 29th June
Social Studies Building, S0.21 in the morning

Keynote speakers:

Prof Jennifer Jenkins (University of Southampton)
"English as a Lingua Franca: the research agenda moves on ..."

Prof Winnie Cheng (Hong Kong Polytechnic University)
"What can I do with a corpus?"

Ramphal Building in the afternoon

Thematic Panels:

- English Language Teaching
- English Language Learning and Testing
- Working and Communicating Across Cultures
- Professional and Academic Discourse

THE UNIVERSITY OF WARWICK

