

WARWICK
THE UNIVERSITY OF WARWICK

English for Global Communication Summer School

The University of Warwick's English for Global Communication (EGC) programme is designed for undergraduate students from around the world. It consists of either two or four weeks of tuition with a focus on the development of English language and intercultural skills. It is designed to equip students with the skills, strategies and competencies that they are likely to need in the globally connected world.

The programme provides an opportunity to meet with students of different nationalities from other universities, experience academic and campus life at one of the top global universities, and enjoy a programme of cultural visits and social events.

INTERNATIONAL UNDERGRADUATES WILL DEVELOP SKILLS IN:

- ▶ Using authentic English
- ▶ Critical and Creative Thinking
- ▶ Presenting
- ▶ Problem Solving
- ▶ Reading, Writing, Speaking and Listening
- ▶ Using Strategies for Intercultural Communication

Our Summer School doesn't only focus on the academic side but includes a packed social programme and cultural visits to places around the UK. The costs associated with all cultural visits are included in the programme fee, and coach travel is provided to all destinations. In your spare time there is also the opportunity to try out our world-class sports facilities, visit our Arts Centre and explore local towns and cities such as Kenilworth, Leamington Spa and Birmingham. Our team are always on hand to help you with any advice or suggestions you may need.

You will meet lifelong friends, make connections with people from all around the world, and have the experience of a lifetime.

INCLUDED IN THE PROGRAMME:

- ▶ Accommodation - Stay in student accommodation on campus or off campus accommodation located a short bus ride away
- ▶ Cultural and academic trips to places such as Warwick Castle, Shakespeare's Stratford, Oxford or London
- ▶ A relaxed welcome BBQ and celebration farewell lunch with the Short Courses team
- ▶ Airport pickups and a bus pass to enable travel to and from campus and exploration of the local area
- ▶ A variety of sports and social activities
- ▶ A University of Warwick certificate

You can find more information and apply here:

Applied Linguistics

The University of Warwick
Coventry
CV4 7AL
ShortCourses@warwick.ac.uk