The Coronavirus and People with Learning Disabilities Study

Sharing what we found out so far

The Coronavirus and People with Learning Disabilities Study is a research project.

We found out lots of information

We shared that information with lots of different people

We did 50 presentations.

We did presentations for:

- Local Government Association
- NW Self Advocacy conference
- Association of Directors of Adult Social Services (ADASS)
- Welsh Government
- Scottish Government
- NHS England
- Department of Health and Social Care
- Cabinet Office
- Care Quality Commission (CQC).

We have written 49 reports

The reports have included easy read, blogs and videos.

Most of the reports are available on the project website.

The research has been in the news 10 times.

It has been on the TV, radio and in newspapers.

We have written 6 articles for other researchers to use.

We are pleased that so many people wanted to know about the research.

We want our research to help people.

We don't know if people changed things because of our research.

The government think the research is useful and want us to keep doing it.
