

Economics Undergraduate Destinations Report 2025

2024-25 Cohort of Warwick Economics Graduates

UNIVERSITY OF WARWICK

Graduate Destinations

In 2024–25, the Department of Economics had 483 final-year graduates across 4 degree programmes:

- BSc Economics
- BSc Economics and Industrial Organisation
- BSc Mathematics and Economics
- BSc/BA Economics, Politics and International Studies

275 graduates (57%) responded to our destinations survey after graduating in July 2025:

- 214 students (78%) entered employment
- 61 students (22%) continued to further study.

Work Destinations After Graduation

Of the 214 graduates who went into employment, 183 work in the UK, with smaller numbers building careers across Europe, Asia, the Middle East, and the USA.

	UK	183	86%
	Asia	18	8%
	Europe	9	4%
	North America	3	1.5%
	Africa (Seychelles)	1	0.5%

Employer Sectors

Graduates who went on to employment — 214 (78% of respondents) — work in the following sectors:

Job Titles and Starting Salary

Of the 214 graduates who went into employment, 147 graduates (69%) work as analysts, associates, or consultants, mainly within investment banking, credit markets, risk, audit, and general finance. The remaining 67 graduates (31%) spread across economist, research, teaching, and actuary roles.

Job Title	Count	%
Analyst	83	39%
Investment Banking Analyst	28	13.1%
Associate	27	12.9%
Consultant	9	4%
Other (Various roles)	67	31%

»»» £45,960 - average salary

»»» £43,312 – median salary

*15.98% of the survey respondents who went into employment after graduation advised their starting salary.

Employer Destinations

Below are listed the top employers of our 2025 graduates, with Deloitte being the most common destination (10 graduates).

Deloitte – 10

BNP Paribas - 8

Ernst & Young - 8

PwC - 8

Citi - 6

Barclays - 6

JP Morgan - 5

UBS - 5

RBC - 4

HSBC - 3

Deutsche Bank - 3

BlackRock - 3

BCG - 3

Deloitte.

BNP PARIBAS

J.P.Morgan

HSBC

Deutsche Bank

BLACKROCK®

Further Study Programmes and Discipline

Of the 61 graduates - 22% of respondents - who went into further study, 54 enrolled in a Master's Programme, 3 pursued an Mphil, 2 an MA, and 2 a professional course.

Percentage breakdown of further study routes is as follows:

- Master Degree - 89%
- Other Professional Courses/PGCE - 3%
- Mphil - 5%
- MA - 3%

Further Study Course Titles and Disciplines

Below are the most popular programmes pursued by our graduates who continued into further study, with the majority choosing Economics, Finance, Data Science, and Management and Business related subjects.

Master Degree			Professional Course
• Business Analytics • Business and Sustainability • Computing • Data Science • Development Studies • Economics	• Economics and Data Science • Economics Strategy for Business • Finance • Global Health Management • Health and International Development • Investment and Wealth Management	• Local Economic Development • Management • Marketing • Real Estate • Statistics	• Tax Advisor • PGCE in Mathematics

Further Studies Destinations

Below are listed the top higher education institutions our 2025 graduates progressed to, with Imperial College London being the most common destination (11 graduates).

- Imperial College London - 11
- London School of Economics (LSE) - 9
- University of Warwick – 8
- UCL – 8
- University of Cambridge – 4
- Bocconi - 2
- University of Bath – 2
- Warwick Business School – 2

Imperial College
London

UNIVERSITY OF WARWICK

Bocconi

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE

UNIVERSITY OF BATH

WARWICK BUSINESS SCHOOL
THE UNIVERSITY OF WARWICK