

CAGE 2022 Research Away Day

10th November 2022

Radcliffe Conference Centre, University of Warwick

Organisers: Johannes Böken, Carolina Kansikas, Cora Neumann, Ivan Yotzov

The aim of this half-day event is for our faculty and associated academics to present recent work related to CAGE's themes, in an informal setting allowing for feedback and discussion.

Programme:

13:00	Lunch at Radcliffe
Session 1. Chair: Bishnupriya Gupta
14:00	Amrita Kulka "Rural Physican Shortages and Policy Intervention" (with Dennis McWeeny)
14:30	Mirko Draca "The Returns to Viral Media: The Case of US Political Contributions" (with Johannes Böken, Arianna Ornaghi and Nicola Mastrorocco)
15:00	Ludovica Gaze "Extreme Weather and Child Maltreatment: Physiological and Social Mechanisms" (with Mary Evans and Jessamyn Schaller)
15:30	Coffee and Tea Break
Session 2. Chair: Mirko Draca
16:00	Cora Neumann (Warwick PhD student) "Property Rights and Fertility: Evidence from 19th Century United States"
16:30	Johannes Böken (Warwick PhD student) "Online Social Networks and the Global Spread of Political Activism and Unrest"
17:00	Drinks at Varsity

Economic and Social Research Council