

THE LONDON SCHOOL
OF ECONOMICS AND
POLITICAL SCIENCE ■

OWL Workshop (Oxford, Warwick & LSE)

Friday 13th May 2016

Scarman Conference Centre, University of Warwick

Friday 13th May

09:30	Registration and refreshments
09:55	Introduction and Welcome
10:00	Bishnu Gupta (Warwick)	Does Geography Determine industrialisation? Evidence from India
10:45	Coffee
11:15	Kevin O'Rourke (Oxford)	British trade policy in the 1930s
12:00	James Dowey (LSE)	Mind over Matter: Access to Knowledge and the British Industrial Revolution
12:45	Lunch Scarman
14:00	Keynote Address: William Collins (Vanderbilt)	Up from Slavery? African American Intergenerational Economic Mobility since 1880
15:15	Leigh Gardner (LSE)	'The love of liberty brought us here': Migration from the United States to Liberia, 1820-1865'
16:00	Coffee
16:30	Nick Crafts (Warwick)	"Cities and Economic Growth: Lessons from U. S. Industrialization, 1880-1930" (with Alex Klein).
17:15	Rui Esteves (Oxford)	Gold and Trade: An Empirical Simulation Approach (joint with Florian Ploeckl)
18:00	Drinks reception
19:00	Dinner Scarman private dining

