

Trade Costs and International Trade Integration - Past, Present and Future

Local Information and Transport

June 25/26, 2010 (arrival on June 24, departure on June 27)
Organisers: Dennis Novy, David Jacks, Christopher Meissner

Please note: As getting around in Venice is more difficult than elsewhere, allow ample time for local transport and making your way to the hotel, conference venue and to the restaurants. We suggest you print this information and make yourself familiar with the maps. Also, please ask for a local map at the hotel reception.

Conference venue:

Palazzo Pesaro-Papafava
The University of Warwick in Venice
Calle de la Racketta
30121 Venice, Italy

The Palazzo Pesaro-Papafava (PPP) is the University of Warwick's conference venue in Venice. This 15th-century palazzo is situated in the heart of historic Venice, a few minutes' walk from two of Venice's most famous icons: the Rialto Bridge and the Ca' d'Oro. Lying along the banks of the Canale della Misericordia, opposite the Scuola Grande della Misericordia, its balconies afford views towards the Canal Grande as well as to the Lagoon. For more information, please go to this website:

The Don Orione is at least 30 minutes away from the conference hotel walking (this is not a short walk but very beautiful, see the map below for an overview and directions). Please allow ample time.

Local transport:

- As explained below in detail, you first have to get from the airport to Piazzale Roma by bus. From there you make your way by boat to your hotel.
- Please note that although it is possible to go by boat directly from the airport close to your hotel, we will not reimburse those direct airport Vaporetto/water taxi services.

From the airport to Piazzale Roma: Take the Blue ATVO Fly Bus

Website:	http://www.atvo.it/index.php?lang=en&area=23&menuid=35
Departure point:	Outside main entrance of airport
Destination:	Piazzale Roma (Bay D2)
Frequency:	Every half an hour (usually at 20 minutes and 50 minutes past the hour) between 8.20am and 0.20am. Please check the above link for the latest times.
Journey time:	20 minutes (direct, non-stop)
Cost:	Around 3 euros (luggage included)
Tickets:	Tickets should be purchased at the ATVO counter in the airport arrivals hall or from the machine outside the main entrance or from the driver. Tickets should be validated by punching in the machines provided.

From Piazzale Roma to Hotel Giorgione:

From Piazzale Roma continue with the water bus line #1 (run by ACTV) and get off at the Ca' d'Oro stop (this is the fifth stop coming from Piazzale Roma, see the map below). The Hotel Giorgione is only 5 minutes away: take the narrow street in front of you, turn right onto Strada Nuova. Once in campo Santissimi Apostoli, towards your left-hand side you will see Hotel Giorgione.

From Piazzale Roma to Don Orione:

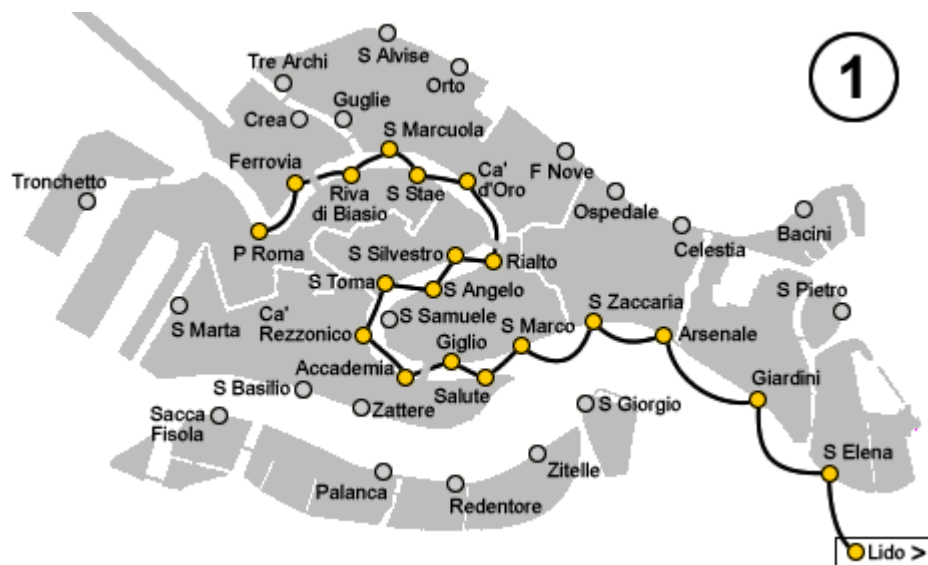

From Piazzale Roma continue with the water bus line #1 (run by ACTV) and get off at the Accademia stop (this is the eleventh stop coming from Piazzale Roma, see the map below). Keep to the left and walk along Rio Terà Foscarini. The entrance to the Don Orione will be on the right-hand side at 909/a (in front of S. Agnese church).

Some information on local eating establishments:

The organizers' friend Andrea De Michelis, who grew up in Venice and Padoa, gives us the following eating recommendations:

For good food, always stick to finger food (cicheti, the Venetian version of tapas), risotti and seafood. Do not eat meats and pizzas, pastas are okay. For wines, stick to prosecco and white wines from Friuli.

Andrea recommends having a Bellini drink at the historic and fashionable "Harry's Bar" near San Marco. He says you should not eat there. Also do not go with more with than one or two colleagues/friends. The place is tiny.

For outside cicheti and great wine on the Grand Canal right near Rialto go to "Bancogiro."

A casual dinner/drink can be had at either "Aciugheta" or "Vedova."

Also recommended is the tiny "Osteria Alle Testiere." This is somewhere between casual and expensive and a reservation is recommended.

For nicer, more expensive (and better) meals, Andrea recommends "Osteria da Fiore" (not the Trattoria!) or "Al Covo" (reservations required in both places).
