Comments

Tutor has helped to fill in gaps in understanding from lectures with clear explanations and involvement of student input.

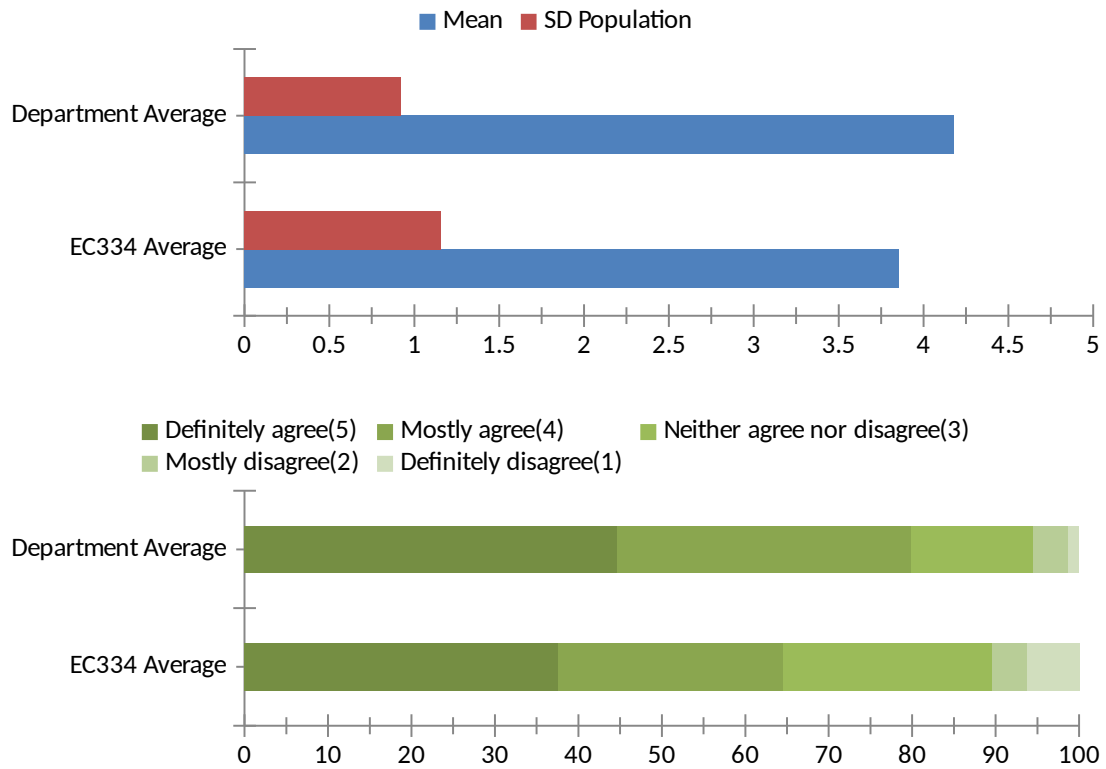

Tutor Liu Junxi was very helpful. It was often the case that it would be hard to understand the lecture material but the tutor would compensate for this because during the seminar he not only goes through the exercises but also builds on our understanding about the topic. The tutor also seems very passionate about the subject and during seminars engages with students. You can see that he really cares whether students understand the material.
